POCKLINGTON PREP SCHOOL PSHE Policy

Values & Aims

Personal, Social, Health and Economic (PSHE) Education is a subject through which pupils develop the knowledge, skills and attributes they need to keep themselves healthy and safe, and prepared for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of adult life. PSHE has an impact on both academic and non-academic outcomes for pupils, particularly the most vulnerable and disadvantaged.

In order for children to embrace the challenges of creating happy and successful adult lives, they need knowledge that will enable them to make informed decisions about their wellbeing, health and relationships, and to build their self-efficacy. High quality, evidence-based and age-appropriate teaching of PSHE helps pupils develop resilience, and to know how and when to ask for help.

Pocklington Prep School aims to provide a caring, secure and enriching experience; each child is encouraged to develop strong personal, academic, physical and creative skills for lifelong learning.

Our Foundation values of Courage, Truth and Trust underpin all aspects of PSHE within the Prep School.

Legislation and Guidance

This PSHE Policy has been written to ensure Pocklington Prep School meets the requirements of the National Curriculum 2014 for Science and the non-statutory framework for Personal, Social, Health and Economic (PSHE) Education and Citizenship for Key Stages 1 and 2. It also fulfils the requirements of the EYFS Framework (July 2023).

PSHE education makes a crucial contribution to schools' duties. The Education Act 2002 requires all schools to teach a curriculum that is 'broadly based, balanced and meets the needs of pupils'. Schools must 'promote the spiritual, moral, cultural, mental and physical development of pupils at the school and of society, and prepare pupils at the school for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of later life' while having a duty to keep pupils safe.

This PSHE Policy also takes into account the DfE's 'Relationships Education, Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) and Health Education (June 2019)', 'Teaching Online Safety in School (June 2019)' 'Political Impartiality in Schools' (DfE, February 2022) and 'Parental Engagement on Relationships Education (October 2019)'. From September 2020, Relationships Education and Health Education are compulsory in all schools providing primary education. At Pocklington Prep School, both Relationships Education and Health Education are taught through a comprehensive programme of study for PSHE which fulfils all aspects of these curricula.

Please also refer to the school's policy on Relationships and Sex Education.

Pocklington Prep School PSHE Curriculum

The school's PSHE scheme of work has been designed as a spiral curriculum with the following key principles in mind:

- Cyclical: Pupils revisit the five key areas throughout KS1 and KS2.
- Increasing depth: Each time a key area is revisited, it is covered with greater depth and increasing maturity.
- Prior knowledge: Upon returning to each key area, prior knowledge is utilised so pupils can build on previous foundations, rather than starting again.

POCKLINGTON PREP SCHOOL PSHE Policy

The school's programme of study for PSHE aims to prepare children for life in modern Britain through five core strands:

- Family and Relationships
- Health and Wellbeing
- Safety and the Changing Body
- Citizenship
- Economic Wellbeing

Year 6 have a further key area: Identity

Definition and Content

Family and Relationships

Learning how to: form respectful relationships with others, deal with conflict and bullying and the importance of challenging stereotypes.

Health and Wellbeing

Learning strategies for looking after their mental and physical health, including: healthy eating, relaxation techniques, sun safety, immunisation facts and the benefits of sleep.

Safety and the Changing Body

Learning: how to administer first aid in a variety of situations and about safety around medicines, online and road safety and the changes which occur during puberty.

Citizenship

Learning about: human rights and the rights of the child, democracy, diversity and community and protecting the environment.

Think Equal

At Pocklington Prep School, we are committed to eliminating discrimination, disrespect and violence and to bringing about empathy, care and compassion. As a result, all children in the Pre-Prep, from Pre-School to Year 2, participate in the 'Think Equal' programme. This is a revolutionary programme providing social and emotional learning, which has been designed by leaders in the field of education and psychology to teach that all humans are equal and equally to be valued.

Through its delivery as a structured programme of 3 lessons per week, at 3 different levels, the Think Equal programme aims to eliminate discrimination and inequality, address mental health challenges, and nurture wellbeing, empathy and healthy relationships in our children.

Economic Wellbeing

Learning how to make decisions when it comes to spending, budgeting and saving money and exploring different career choices.

Identity (Year 6 only)

Considering what makes us who we are whilst learning about body image.

Delivery

The school provides staff with access to Kapow, which provides engaging, knowledge-rich and progressive lesson plans for PSHE, in keeping with the school's scheme of work. This includes teacher CPD videos to ensure that all staff feel confident in their delivery of all six strands of PSHE and planning materials to support them in adapting the resources to the unique needs of our school.

PSHE in the EYFS

Personal, social and emotional development is one of the three Prime Areas in the Statutory Framework for the Early Years Foundation Stage. The Prime Areas, Communication and language, Physical development and Personal, social and emotional development, lay the foundations for children to achieve in all areas of learning and life. The Early Learning Goals (ELGs) below summarise the knowledge, skills and understanding that all young children should have gained by the end of the reception year in the Personal, Social and Emotional Development Prime Area.

ELG – Self Regulation

Children at the expected level of development will: -Show an understanding of their own feelings and those of others, and begin to regulate their behaviour accordingly; -Set and work towards simple goals, being able to wait for what they want and control their immediate impulses when appropriate; -Give focused attention to what the teacher says, responding appropriately even when engaged in an activity, and show an ability to follow instructions involving several ideas or actions.

ELG – Managing Self

Children at the expected level of development will: -Be confident to try new activities and show independence, resilience and perseverance in the face of challenge; -Explain the reasons for rules, know right from wrong and try to behave accordingly; -Manage their own basic hygiene and personal needs, including dressing, going to the toilet and understanding the importance of healthy food choices.

ELG – Physical Development

Children at the expected level of development will: -Work and play cooperatively and take turns with others; -Form positive attachments to adults and friendships with peers; -Show sensitivity to their own and to others' needs.

Political Impartiality

The DfE guidance 'Political Impartiality in Schools' (DfE, February 2022) provides helpful information which staff will adhere to in planning lessons or responding to discussions on political issues. Teaching about political issues, the different views people have, and the ways pupils can engage in our democratic society is an essential part of a broad and balanced curriculum. In both PSHE lessons and the wider curriculum, staff will take such steps as are reasonably practicable to ensure that, where political issues are brought to the attention of pupils, they are offered a balanced presentation of opposing views.

Questions Raised by Pupils

Effective PSHE needs to be taught in an atmosphere of responsibility and respect, where sensitive issues can be discussed without embarrassment or threat. Establishing a safe, open and positive learning environment, built on trusting relationships between all members of the class community is vital to successful and effective teaching and learning within this subject.

Questions raised by children will be answered honestly and with a degree of detail appropriate to the child's age and stage of development. While it is essential that lessons are sensitive to a range of views, staff will ensure that pupils always have access to the learning they need to stay safe, healthy and understand their rights as individuals. This will include clear, impartial scientific information as well as covering the law, particularly in relation to legislation concerning equality.

Staff will use their professional skills and discretion before answering questions and, if necessary, they will deal with questions on an individual basis after the lesson. Where pupils' questions require a response that goes beyond the prescribed programme of study for the year group, they will be encouraged to ask the question at home. Where appropriate, teachers will discuss a child's concerns with their parents/carers.

Staff at Pocklington Prep School are aware that effective PSHE brings an understanding of what is not acceptable in a relationship. Any disclosures or safeguarding concerns prompted by the school's programme of study for PSHE will be reported in line with the school's Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy.

The usual standards of confidentiality between staff and pupils will be observed in PSHE lessons, except where a child's question might suggest the possibility of abuse. In these circumstances, any concern will be reported in line with the school's Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy.

Timetabling

We allocate curriculum time to PSHE education.

Our PSHE education takes place as either a weekly lesson and a biweekly lesson. In addition, we run planned off-timetable days on discrete topics.

Our PSHE education provision is planned effectively to ensure that each year can build on the knowledge gained in the previous year, and so improve knowledge and understanding as pupils progress through the school.

Working with Parents/Carers and the Wider Community

Pocklington Prep School recognises that parents/carers are the prime educators for children on PSHE matters. As such, the school seeks to work in partnership with parents/carers, in a relationship of mutual understanding, trust and co-operation. In promoting this objective, we:

- Share with parents/carers, the purpose and content of the school's programme of study for PSHE, explaining clearly what will be taught and when.
- Inform parents about the school's approach to PSHE.
- Make this PSHE Policy available via our school website.
- Answer any questions that parents/carers may have about the education of their child.
- Notify parents when Sex Education will be taught.
- Discuss concerns regarding curriculum content/delivery and acknowledge the parental right of withdrawal from Sex Education.
- Take seriously any issue that parents/carers raise about this PSHE Policy or the arrangements for PSHE in the school.

Inclusion

The Prep School's PSHE Policy will be implemented in accordance with The Equality Act 2010 and the Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED), which requires public bodies to have due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct prohibited by the Act;
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and

people who do not share it;

- Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.

Pocklington Prep School recognises and respects pupils' different abilities, levels of maturity and personal circumstances; for example, their own sexual orientation, gender identity, faith or culture, or the sexual orientation, gender identity, faith or culture of their immediate family, close friends and wider community.

Pocklington Prep School will always respect how pupils choose to identify themselves, understanding that – depending on their age and maturity – their sexual orientation and gender identity may be 'emerging'. This means that Relationships Education and Sex Education at Pocklington Prep School is sensitive to the different needs of individual pupils and may need to evolve and adapt over time as the pupil population changes.
