POCKLINGTON PREP SCHOOL Behaviour Policy

Philosophy

Good behaviour and personal discipline are key foundations of good education. Without an orderly atmosphere in school, effective teaching and learning are unlikely to take place. We all need to have a clear understanding of the Foundation's core values to create a caring school. Our School Values are:

Trust

The Foundation's Christian ethos guides our caring and straightforward approach. We treat each other with respect and uphold our tradition as friendly and compassionate schools.

Truth

We value debate which is open, honest and informed to stimulate creativity, intellectual curiosity and initiative.

Courage

We challenge ourselves and each other to change for the better.

Pocklington Prep School is committed to creating an environment where exemplary behaviour is at the heart of productive learning. Everyone is expected to try their best to maintain the highest standards of personal conduct, to accept responsibility for their behaviour and encourage others to do the same. Our behaviour policy guides staff to teach self-discipline not blind compliance. It echoes our values with a heavy emphasis on respectful behaviour, a partnership approach to managing poor conduct and dynamic interventions that support all stakeholders.

Aims of Policy

- To ensure a consistent and calm approach to, and use of language for, managing behaviour;
- To ensure that everyone in school feels valued and is held in high esteem;
- To foster a spirit of co-operation, responsibility and independence;
- To encourage empathy towards the feelings, values, beliefs, and cultures of others;
- To give children pride in their own achievements and in the achievements of others;
- To encourage our pupils to respect their own and others' property;
- To create a calm, ordered atmosphere in which children and adults are happy, secure and able to progress.

Equality Act 2010: When making decisions under this policy, the School will take into account any special educational needs or protected characteristics a pupil may have and any religious requirements affecting them.

We expect high standards of work and behaviour from all children and believe in positive reinforcement rather than emphasising the negative. The School's approach to discipline will be consistent throughout the School and will be applied in a calm and firm way.

Pocklington Prep School Rules

A high standard of courtesy, common decency, tidiness, and honesty is expected from every member of the School. On accepting a place in the School, pupils are accepting our Rules and a willingness to embody them.

In recognition of the different levels of understanding and developmental stages within the School, children in the Pre-Prep (including the EYFS) and Prep departments follow differently worded sets of the same rules.

Pre-Prep's Golden Rules

In the Pre-Prep, the pupils will follow the Golden Rules:

We listen to others to show we care.

We are kind and gentle in all we say and do.

We are quiet around school and let our friends learn.

We are always honest and have the courage to stand up for what is right.

We always do our best and never give up.

Prep Respect Code

In Prep, the pupils will follow the Respect Code:

We show respect by listening when others speak and we follow instructions straight away.

We show respect by being kind: keeping unhelpful hands, feet, objects and comments to ourselves.

We show respect by moving through the school calmly and quietly, allowing other children to learn.

We show respect by being honest and having the courage to stand up for what is right.

We show respect by being on time and completing work to the best of our ability.

The Foundations of Our Practice

At Pocklington Prep School, the foundations of our work are based on relational practice, which drives an exceptional culture in which children thrive and adults love their work. There are clear boundaries, effective systems and mutual respect. We believe that outstanding management of behaviour is not simply skills led, it is about getting the culture right.

The Process of Our Practice

1. Consistent, calm adult behaviours

We ask staff to be consistent with children and set firm boundaries and expectations at all times, enabling pupils to feel safe. Staff will be approachable and there to help and their focus will always be on working towards a positive resolution.

We ask that adults in school exemplify the following behaviours:

- Calmness
- Humour
- Empathy
- Consistency
- Reflective practice
- Recognising and praising positive pupil behaviour publicly
- Confidence with a smile
- Aiming for win/win situations
- De-escalation

2. First attention to best conduct

Adults in school apply the following principles in all interactions with pupils:

- IDENTIFY the behaviour we expect
- Explicitly TEACH behaviour
- MODEL the behaviour we are expecting
- PRACTISE behaviour
- NOTICE excellent behaviour
- CREATE conditions for excellent behaviour

The language around behaviour should always remain positive. Meaningful, specific, and personal direct praise is powerful, and adults will tell children what they are praising and why.

Rewards and Recognition

At Pocklington Prep School, we have a variety of ways of praising children, to raise self-esteem. On a daily basis, adults make use of the following:

- Verbal or written acknowledgement in the form of a positive comment on a pupil's work;
- Informal praise and encouragement at all opportunities, in class and outside, including the recognition of courtesy and politeness, please and thank you;
- Form teachers will use their own pedagogical practice to guide this.

POCKLINGTON PREP SCHOOL Behaviour Policy

Pre-Prep Specific Rewards

Alongside the 5 Golden Rules we strive to develop the following positive characteristics in our Pre-Prep pupils:

- Persistence
- Self-challenge
- Independence
- Empathy

Due to the age of the children involved, these skills are celebrated using the additional rewards outlined below:

Star of the Day – Each Form Teacher will select one child to be the Star of the Day. This child will receive a stamp and note in their Planner and gain extra responsibilities on the following day. A child will be selected in recognition of a positive experience that day, be it in their learning or in a child's behaviour. The Form Teacher will keep a record of who has been 'Star of the Day' to ensure a fair system.

Star of the Week – Each Form Teacher will select one child to be the Star of the Week. This certificate is predominantly rewarded for children exhibiting persistence, independence, self-challenge and developing emotional awareness. The 'Star of the Week' will be awarded a certificate in our celebration assembly.

House System and Formal Rewards

All children in school are allocated to a House Team, to promote collaboration, peer support and shared goals. Our formal recognition of positive work and behaviour, allows pupils to contribute to their House Team as follows:

House tokens are awarded to individuals, be it for outstanding effort with work or other positive behaviours. House tokens go towards the House Merit Shield competition.

Work or behaviour of an outstanding nature will be recognised by the award of a Distinction.

Distinctions are an opportunity for at least three people to praise a child, including the giver, the Head of Prep, who signs the card and the parents. Distinctions count triple points towards the House Merit Shield competition. They are presented in the weekly Celebration assembly by the Head of Prep School.

Celebration Assembly

Formal opportunities to recognise children occur on a weekly basis, in our Celebration Assembly, where public praise is given to those children who have demonstrated the school values.

3. Relentless Routines

Routines allow adults to lead from their values and children feel safe and secure in classrooms that are predictable.

- Staff will not assume that children know how to behave; regardless of age they will teach them the rules that operate in the classroom and precise routines and rituals for individual activities;
- Children will be taught routines for formal learning activities (independent work, group discussion, think/pair/share etc.);
- Children will be taught the rituals for classroom organisation and informal activities (entering the classroom, tidying, answering questions);
- Acknowledgement and positive reinforcement will be used to embed the rules, routines and rituals.

Alongside class-based routines, we embed the following relentless routines throughout the whole school:

POCKLINGTON PREP SCHOOL Behaviour Policy

Morning meet and greet – all adults and children will greet each other with ‘good morning’

In line – children will line up smartly and silently when they see the adult with their hand raised

Best foot forward – silent walking through school, greeting all fellow pupils and adults with a smile

Ready to learn – eyes on the adult, sat up tall, quiet and focused, mind on the job

4. Scripting difficult conversations

At Pocklington Prep we look to resist lengthy discussions around behaviour and aim to return learners to their learning and play. The majority of behaviours are dealt with quickly and in the moment, using ‘stop and think’ techniques. Children are supported through the application of a clear, staged programme of Behaviour Support. Further information regarding the Behaviour Pathway can be found in Appendix B.

When the Behaviour Pathway is implemented, to support a child, adults will help the child to reflect on their behaviour through a number of disciplinary measures, depending on the child and the nature of the behavioural incident(S). In keeping with DfE guidance, Behaviour in schools: Advice for headteachers and school staff (DfE, Sept 2022), these may include:

- A verbal correction
- Time to enhance unsatisfactory work
- Behaviour Reflection exercise (see Appendix C), during missed break or lunch, for the pupil to reflect on what happened and consider what they could have done differently
- Regular reporting including start and end of break time
- Behaviour targets

Pre-Prep Specific Behaviour Support (including in the EYFS)* - Shining Stars

We recognise that young children are still learning about what is, and is not, acceptable behaviour and we support children in the Pre-Prep by addressing all behaviour, which breaks the Pre-Prep Golden Rules, through use of the clear, staged approach which is in line with the school’s Behaviour Pathway, but provides children with a visual reminder of how things are going for them during the day.

At the start of every day the pupils will be given a Star on the Shining Star wall. They will keep their star if they maintain good standards of learning and good behaviour.

In the event that a child exhibits low-level undesirable behaviour which breaks the Golden Rules, they are helped to address it in the following way:

Stop and Think - On the first occasion, when a child exhibits a low-level undesirable behaviour, children will be given a verbal warning and asked to stop and think about what they are doing, before making positive changes.

Star moves to border - A repeat of this behaviour, or another low-level undesirable behaviour within the same day, will result in a child’s star being moved to the border and their teacher will speak to them about making a positive change.

Loss of star – A further repeat, within the day, will result in the removal of their star.

If a child ‘loses’ their star, the Class Teacher will speak to the child and restorative measures will be put in place. Both the Head of Pre-Prep and the child’s parents will be informed.

In some circumstances, a single, more serious and age-inappropriate behaviour may result in an immediate loss of star.

5. Restorative Follow Up

The focus of our behaviour interventions are to allow the children to be emotionally ready to return to their learning. A restorative conversation needs to take place between the child and their teacher or peer at the earliest opportunity.

Once the child is calm and focused, they will work through the restorative script in Appendix C with either the adult or child recording the responses. Where a child's behaviour has fallen short of expectations, adults will always endeavour to find out what has happened, so that they can support all involved. This may involve adults speaking to children individually or in small groups.

Incidents are not always witnessed by an adult and children will often change versions of events as it normal for children to want to minimise their actions if they have a strong moral code and regret what has happened or want to support a peer. Our school staff are experienced in gathering information and will seek information from the children involved in order to make a decision about what happened on the balance of probability. This can be difficult for parents when children are unwilling to admit their part in an incident but staff in the Prep School will act in the best interest of every single child, and sometimes children need to understand clearly that they got something wrong to prevent them making the same mistake again. As parents we do not get upset about the mistakes our children make in academic lessons or question them being brought to our child's attention and therefore it is important that parents adopt the same approach to helping children to see social mistakes as an opportunity to grow.

Where it is felt that a conversation between two children is needed to restore a friendship, to redress a power imbalance or to give children a voice, two children may be brought together for restorative work. Staff will do this with the utmost care for both parties and will speak to both children prior to the work, about how the idea of this makes them feel. The restorative conversation will only happen when both children demonstrate a readiness; staff will use their professional judgement to gauge this through monitoring pupil wellbeing and watching the pupil's interactions both in and out of the classroom.

Girls on Board

At Pocklington Prep School, we use the 'Girls on Board' approach, which helps girls, their parents and their teachers to understand the complexities and dynamics of girl friendships. The language, methods and ideas empower girls to solve their own friendship problems. Unless there is specific wrong-doing or bullying taking place, Girls on Board replaces the 'justice tools' approach usually adopted by teachers to investigate conflict. A Girls on Board session brings all the girls in a school year group together to explore and re-enforce the key principles:

- All girls fear having no friends.
- Adults can only help in very limited ways.
- A girl without a friendship group is a problem for everyone because whichever group she eventually joins will be changed in some way by her arrival.

Once girls begin to see and understand that they nearly all feel this way, then rifts between them naturally start to heal and they start to bond with each other again. Using the Girls on Board approach, teachers help the girls build healing empathy and then let that empathy do its work.

Wellbeing Service

Staff will maintain open communication with home and, if it is felt that a child would benefit from additional pastoral support, they will speak with parents regarding making a referral to the School Wellbeing Service.

Undesirable Behaviours

Some children may exhibit particular behaviours based on early childhood experiences and family circumstances. As a school, we recognise that this is their way of communicating their emotions.

Where children display extreme behaviour, either as a one-off incident or as a continuation of undesirable behaviour, we will adopt a personalised approach in the form of a 'Behaviour Support Plan' (see Appendix D) to help them to learn from their mistakes. This may involve parents if we feel it would be helpful to the child.

Exclusion

Exclusion is an extreme step and may occur following extreme incidents at the discretion of the Headteacher.

A fixed-term exclusion will be enforced under these conditions:

- Staff need respite after an extreme incident
- The child needs time to reflect on their behaviour
- To give the school time to create a plan which will better support the child
- The child being at home will have a positive impact on future behaviour

Permanent exclusion will always be a last resort and will only be taken in cases where all other options have been exhausted.

Behaviour Monitoring

Instances of poor behaviour will be recorded on the CPOMS file of all children involved and key pastoral staff and senior managers will receive an alert, which helps pastoral staff to identify patterns of poor behaviour, potential pastoral issues and patterns of victimisation or bullying.

Use of Reasonable Force by Staff

School staff can use "reasonable force" to prevent pupils from hurting themselves or others, from damaging property, or from causing disorder. Staff are referred to the relevant Foundation Policy, 'Use of Force (restraint)'.

Wherever possible, staff will use positive reinforcement and encouragement to support all children in following the School Rules. Where pupils exhibit poor behaviour, this will be discouraged, and pupils will be helped to understand why this behaviour is not desirable.

The School rejects the use or threat of use of corporal punishment under any circumstances. (Section 131 of the Schools Standards and Framework Act 1998). This includes any parent volunteers or any person living or working in the premises. Any person must not threaten corporal punishment and must not use or threaten any punishment which could adversely affect a child's well-being.

We will always work with parents to achieve the best outcome for their child and we will make contact with parents where there are concerns about deteriorating levels of acceptable behaviour. This should be seen as a positive step towards helping the child through a home-school approach. Behaviour develops over time and the threshold for making contact with parents will depend on the child and the circumstances.

Behaviour outside of School

The School may apply the Behaviour Policy to any pupil behaviour, which takes place under School authority, i.e. when the pupil is within the School or taking part in any School-organised or School-related activity, travelling to or from School, wearing School uniform or otherwise identifiable as a pupil of the School. The School may also apply this policy to behaviour outside of School, which could have repercussions for the orderly running of the School, pose a threat to another pupil or member of the public or which could adversely affect the reputation of the School.

The Role of the Parent

At Pocklington Prep School, we recognise that children will only learn from their mistakes when supported by their parents and the wider community. We believe that every family has the right to confidentiality and therefore we will not share information with you about the actions taken for another child. We ask all parents to:

- Trust in the staff to do their best for your child, knowing that behavioural incidents and relationships are complex;
- Show support for the school's actions and decisions, knowing that the school have a full picture of the situation and will be doing their best by your child;
- Reinforce the school rules as much as possible, showing high regard for standards of behaviour;
- Support all children and their families, regardless of how difficult this can be when things go wrong, knowing that one day you may need the support of others too.

Our role in school is to help children to learn, not just academically but socially, and therefore just as we would hope that parents would see the teachers as the experts in teaching academic subjects and would trust in their ability to correct children's mistakes, we ask parents to recognise that teachers are also experts in helping children to learn socially. The school would not expect parents to make demands regarding who may or may not discuss behavioural issues with their child and would ask for parental support of the school's decision, in conversations with children, with other parents and on social media.

This policy should be read in conjunction with the Prep School Anti-Bullying Policy.

Appendix A: More general points regarding good behaviour

In general - we expect pupils to look smart and to behave properly, acting in a friendly and considerate manner, which reflects well upon them and upon the school.

There are specific rules relating to particular areas of school, including the Swimming Pool, Science Room, ICT suite, Art Room and Library. These are displayed in or near the room concerned and must be read and followed.

All rules are designed for the safety and wellbeing of pupils, staff and visitors therefore to breach them is to cause potential harm or nuisance to others as well as to oneself.

Pupils can expect sanctions to be applied for breaking rules and failing to follow the Respect Code (Prep) or Golden Rules (Pre-Prep)

Uniform

- Pupils must wear their school uniform correctly. Smartness is an expectation.
- Full school uniform, including blazers, should be worn for journeys to and from school and for all official school functions and trips (unless other instructions have been issued). In Pre-Prep, the cardigan or jumper replaces the blazer.
- All pupils wear white shirts which must be of a similar style and material to those sold in the school shop. Top buttons must be fastened. Shirt tails must not be hanging out.
- Ties are to be worn properly and tied at a proper length.
- Blazers must be worn on journeys to and from school, when uniform is worn off premises and when moving between Pocklington Prep and the Dining Hall, Assembly Hall, Tom Stoppard Theatre or Pocklington School. Blazers (Prep) or cardigans/jumpers (Pre-Prep) may be removed when hot, with permission.
- Shoes must be black leather and polishable. They should be of sensible, low design. No heels.

Hair, jewellery, badges and make-up

- Hair should be worn in a style which is neat and appropriate for school. Extravagantly short or conspicuous cuts are not allowed. Hair must not be dyed to look unnatural.
- Hair which is collar length, or longer, should be tied back.
- Hair accessories should reflect the school colours and not be extravagantly coloured or ornate.
- Jewellery is not allowed.
- Girls with pierced ears may wear a single pair of matching plain studs. For safety reasons these must be removed or covered during PE / swimming and games.
- No badges are to be worn other than those awarded by the school to denote positions of responsibility.

Movement

- Pupils must walk, not run, in all areas of the school. This includes stairs, footpaths and corridors.
- We keep to the left and in single file. This is especially important on stairs.
- Pupils should be aware of visitors and are expected to wait and hold doors for adults.
- When waiting, e.g. outside a room, pupils should do so quietly on one side of the corridor and in single file.
- At busy times, such as after assembly, pupils should not stop at noticeboards as this causes congestion.
- When outside, pupils should keep to the footpaths, especially during wet weather.
- Pupils must NEVER run across the car park / turning areas.

POCKLINGTON PREP SCHOOL

Behaviour Policy

Bounds

- Pocklington Prep pupils stay on the school site at all times during the school day, unless escorted elsewhere by a member of staff.
- Pupils play on the fields in an area defined by the ends of the Pocklington Prep buildings and as far as the “two trees”, keeping off cricket squares or any seeded areas.
- Climbing on roofs, walls and trees is expressly forbidden.
- Please respect the privacy of the Housemasters and keep out of their gardens unless needing to pass through.
- During lessons, and at all times other than when changing for break or games, the changing rooms are out of bounds.

Appropriate Play

- Pupils should play positively with each other, keeping unhelpful hands and feet to themselves to ensure no inappropriate interactions take place.
- We expect all children to be kind and inclusive by using kind words to each other.
- All children should be invited to play or accepted if they have been asked to play.
- Staff are always there to support any pupil if there has been an incident; they will liaise with the relevant teachers so that it can be dealt with properly.

Wet breaks

- When a wet morning break is declared, pupils stay in their form rooms and should not move about the school, nor enter the rooms of others. Quiet pursuits should be undertaken, and orderly behaviour is expected.
- Class teachers remain with their class during wet breaks.
- Wet break monitors from Year 6 go to their appointed rooms.
- When a wet lunchtime break is declared, Pre-Prep are supervised within one room by usual duty staff; Prep pupils have a small number of rooms where various activities are provided. They are supervised by duty staff and Year 6 monitors.

Changing rooms

- Pupils have their own pegs and storage area in the changing rooms and must use these to hang and store their coats, bags and games kit. No other person’s area should be used. Kit should be hung up properly, zipped into the games bag, and the locker area kept tidy.
- It is completely forbidden to interfere with and/or “borrow” the belongings of another pupil.
- Food and drink are not to be consumed in the changing rooms. Snacks are best kept in form rooms.
- Playing games of any kind or fooling about in the changing rooms is forbidden. Pupils should change promptly and quietly.
- Pupils must keep out of the shower area.
- Books and pencil cases or anything required for lessons should be taken at the start of day and not be left in bags in the changing rooms.

Matron

- Matron is there to help pupils who are ill or may have hurt themselves.
- A pupil who is ill or hurt should report to a teacher/duty person first.
- Pupils must ask a member of staff before going to see Matron.

Mobile phones and their use

- Mobile phones or Wi-Fi enabled devices must not be brought to school, unless written permission is granted by the Deputy Head for extenuating circumstances e.g. they travel by bus and require a phone for the journey.
- Pupils who have written permission from the Deputy Head to bring their phone to school, must turn their phone off on arrival in school and leave it with the secretary during the school day.

POCKLINGTON PREP SCHOOL Behaviour Policy

- Pupils are responsible for collecting their mobile at the end of the day.
- Any need to phone home during the school day will be dealt with by the secretary or by matron.
- Just as with computers, pupils are expected to use their phones sensibly and with a care for others, whether in school or outside. Messages sent must be polite and/or informative and in no way designed to hurt.
