The Safeguarding Children Policy

INTRODUCTION

'Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is everyone's responsibility. 'Children' includes everyone under the age of 18. Everyone who comes into contact with children and their families has a role to play. In order to fulfil this responsibility effectively, all practitioners should make sure their approach is child-centred. This means that they should consider, at all times, what is in the best interest of the child.' (KCSIE 2024)

The Foundation fully recognises, and takes most seriously, its legal responsibility to safeguarding children. We expect everyone who works in our Foundation to share this commitment. We are committed to a 'whole Foundation' approach to safeguarding to ensure safeguarding and child protection are at the forefront and underpin all relevant aspects of process and policy.

Adults in the Foundation take all welfare concerns seriously and encourage children and young people to talk to us about anything that worries them. We will always act in the best interests of the child, working together with children, families, staff and in cooperation with local agencies.

Adults looking after children or young people in schools should be aware of the risks of abuse (by adults or other young people), and take steps to reduce those risks. The suite of policies that make up 'The Safeguarding Framework', including the Child Protection Policy, is to help ensure all are clear and confident in responding to the children's needs, and to specific child protection situations.

What 'Safeguarding' Means:

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is defined as: providing help and support to meet the needs of children as soon as problems emerge; protecting children from maltreatment, whether that is within or outside the home, including online; preventing impairment of children's mental or physical health or development; ensuring that children grow up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care; and taking action to enable all children to have the best outcomes.

The school works within the guidance and procedures of East Riding Safeguarding Children Partnership (ERSCP) (erscp.co.uk). (East Riding of Yorkshire Council website: www.eastriding.gov.uk).

The Foundation is careful to follow the government recommendations on gathering information and carrying out checks on all adults working on site:-

3. Pocklington as a Residential Setting: Child Vulnerability

As noted in Keeping Children Safe in Education, children can be particularly vulnerable in residential settings to any form of abuse.

As a boarding school, Pocklington staff should be alert to increased opportunities and vulnerabilities for child-on-child abuse, including bullying and discrimination, paying particular regard to the legally protected characteristics and requirements set out in the Equality Act 2010. Staff should also be alert to inappropriate staff / pupil relationships and understand the steps that must be taken if they have concerns.

All staff are referred to the General Guidance given in Sections 5, 6 & 7 of this policy

Boarding pupils and their parents may contact Independent Schools Inspectorate with any complaints or concerns they may have with regard to boarding welfare:

Email: info@isi.net
Tel: 020 7600 0100
Address: Independent Schools Inspectorate (ISI)
CAP House
9-12 Long Lane
London
EC1A 9HA

Recent national incidents have shown that there is no room for complacency and all colleagues have a duty of vigilance.

4. East Riding Safeguarding Children Partnership (ERSCP) & Sharing of Information

“No single practitioner can have a full picture of a child’s needs and circumstances so effective sharing of information between practitioners, local organisations and agencies is essential for early identification of need, assessment, and service provision to keep children safe.”

(Working Together to Safeguard Children, December 2023)

The East Riding Safeguarding Children Board (now the East Riding Safeguarding Children Partnership) was established as a result of the Children Act 2004 (Sec 13) and the requirements placed upon each Local Authority.

As a ‘Relevant Agency’ under the 2019 Multi Agency Safeguarding Arrangements, the School works closely with the ERSCP on safeguarding and child protection matters, seeking advice and making formal referrals when required. The ERSCP also plays a very positive role in providing training to staff and pupils.

Helpful guidance for when to involve the Police is provided by the National Police Chiefs Council and recommended in government guidance. (When to Call the Police: Guidance for Schools and Colleges)

Wherever it is safe and practicable to do so, the School will engage with the child and their family / carers about what information and with whom the School intends to share that information. Consent is not required to share personal information about a child and/or members of their family if a child is at risk or there is a perceived risk of harm.

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

'The Data Protection Act 2018 and UK GDPR do not prevent the sharing of information for the purposes of keeping children safe. Fears about sharing information must not be allowed to stand in the way of the need to safeguard and promote the welfare and protect the safety of children.' (KCSIE 2024)

5. Recognition of Abuse and Providing Early Help (incl. types of abuse, neglect and exploitation)

All members of the Foundation have a statutory responsibility to safeguard children:

"People working in education settings play an important role in building relationships, identifying concerns and providing direct support to children. They may be the first trusted adult to whom children report safeguarding concerns."

(Working Together to Safeguard Children, December 2023)

Staff must be aware that children with SEN, disability or challenging behaviour may make them more likely to be abused and that this may be masked by their additional needs or communication difficulty.

*Staff should share any concerns they have about a child with the Designated Safeguarding Lead. However, it should be remembered that sometimes children will not feel ready or know how to tell someone that they are being abused, exploited, or neglected, and/or they may not recognise their experiences as harmful.

Mental Health Problems

All staff should be aware that mental health problems can, in some cases, be an indicator that a child has suffered or is at risk of suffering abuse, neglect or exploitation.

School staff are not expected or trained to diagnose mental health conditions or issues, but may notice behaviours that may be of concern.

Where staff have a mental health concern about a child that may also be a safeguarding concern, they should raise the issue by informing the Designated Safeguarding Lead or a deputy.

Children who are lesbian, gay, bisexual or gender questioning

The fact that a child or young person may be lesbian, gay or bisexual is not in itself an inherent risk factor for harm. However, they can be targeted by other children. In some cases, a child who is perceived by other children to be lesbian, gay or bisexual (whether they are or not) can be just as vulnerable as children who are.

Risks can be compounded where children who are LGBT lack a trusted adult with whom they can be open. At Pocklington School, we endeavour to provide a safe space for children to speak openly. Whilst this can be any member of staff chosen by the pupil, the DSL, the Chaplain and the designated LGBT advocate are

The Safeguarding Children Policy

staff to whom children can speak directly and safely on such issues. The LGBT Advocate also co-ordinates an LGBT student awareness group through which matters can be discussed safely and supportively.

5.1 Types of Abuse, Neglect, Exploitation and Possible Indicators

The following is, in significant part, taken from KCSIE 2024. (The DFE document 'What to do if you are worried a child is being abused' (DFE 2015) is also a useful reference for further information).

All staff should be aware of the indicators of abuse, neglect and exploitation, understanding that children can be at risk of harm inside and outside of the school, inside and outside of home, and online.

Abuse, neglect, exploitation and safeguarding issues are rarely standalone events that can be covered by one definition or label. In most cases, multiple issues will overlap with one another. If you are ever worried about a child and unsure what to do, speak to our designated safeguarding lead.

Abuse: a form of maltreatment of a child. Somebody may abuse or neglect a child by inflicting harm or by failing to act to prevent harm. Harm can include ill treatment that is not physical as well as the impact of witnessing ill treatment of others. This can be particularly relevant, for example, in relation to the impact on children of all forms of domestic abuse, including where they see, hear or experience its effects. Children may be abused in a family or in an institutional or community setting by those known to them or, more rarely, by others. Abuse can take place wholly online, or technology may be used to facilitate offline abuse. Children may be abused by an adult or adults or by another child or children.

Physical abuse: a form of abuse which may involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning or scalding, drowning, suffocating or otherwise causing physical harm to a child. Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer fabricates the symptoms of, or deliberately induces, illness in a child.

Emotional abuse: the persistent emotional maltreatment of a child such as to cause severe and adverse effects on the child's emotional development. It may involve conveying to a child that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate, or valued only insofar as they meet the needs of another person. It may include not giving the child opportunities to express their views, deliberately silencing them or 'making fun' of what they say or how they communicate. It may feature age or developmentally inappropriate expectations being imposed on children. These may include interactions that are beyond a child's developmental capability as well as overprotection and limitation of exploration and learning or preventing the child from participating in normal social interaction. It may involve seeing or hearing the ill-treatment of another. It may involve serious bullying (including cyberbullying), causing children frequently to feel frightened or in danger, or the exploitation or corruption of children. Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of maltreatment of a child, although it may occur alone.

Sexual abuse: involves forcing or enticing a child or young person to take part in sexual activities, not necessarily involving violence, whether or not the child is aware of what is happening. The activities may involve physical contact, including assault by penetration (for example rape or oral sex) or non-penetrative acts such as masturbation, kissing, rubbing, and touching outside of clothing. They may also include non-contact activities, such as involving children in looking at, or in the production of, sexual images, watching sexual activities, encouraging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways, or grooming a child in preparation for abuse. Sexual abuse can take place online, and technology can be used to facilitate offline abuse. Sexual abuse is not solely perpetrated by adult males. Women can also commit acts of sexual abuse, as can other children. The sexual abuse of children by other children is a specific safeguarding issue (also known as child on child abuse) in education and all staff should be aware of it and of their school or colleges policy and procedures for dealing with it.

The Safeguarding Children Policy

Neglect: the persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical and/or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of the child's health or development. Neglect may occur during pregnancy, for example, as a result of maternal substance abuse. Once a child is born, neglect may involve a parent or carer failing to: provide adequate food, clothing and shelter (including exclusion from home or abandonment); protect a child from physical and emotional harm or danger; ensure adequate supervision (including the use of inadequate care-givers); or ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment. It may also include neglect of, or unresponsiveness to, a child's basic emotional needs.

The abuse, or possible abuse, of a young person may come to your attention in a number of ways:

A report by the young person, his/her friends, a family member or close associate. When a young person makes a direct report it is important that the principles and procedures contained in the Pocklington School Foundation Child Protection Policy are followed.

An Injury which arouses suspicion because:

- The injury is not consistent with the explanation; and/or
- Explanations differ significantly over time, or depending on who is giving them, or the young person appears anxious and evasive when asked about the injury

The Young Person's Behaviour:

The young person's behaviour may:

- Have become significantly different from their usual behaviour
- Have become significantly different from that of their peers
- Be bizarre or unusual

Some examples of the type of behaviour associated with the four categories of abuse include:

Fear of parents being contacted, shying away from physical contact, flinching at sudden movements, arms and legs covered in hot weather, fear of returning home, fear of medical help, self-destructive tendencies, aggression towards others, chronic running away, tired/listless, poor state of clothing, deteriorating schoolwork, erratic school attendance, low self-esteem, rocking, hair twisting, thumb sucking, inability to play and have fun, overreaction to mistakes, fear of new situations, enuresis/encopresis, eating disorders (anorexia or bulimia nervosa), sleep disturbance/ nightmares, bodily disorders (e.g. repeated complaints about various aches & pains), sexual promiscuity, isolated from their peers, finding it hard to make friends, acting out anger (e.g. truancy, absconding, stealing, substance misuse) and showing little interest in self-care or engaging in self-harm or making suicide attempts.

5.2 Safeguarding Issues

All staff should have an awareness of safeguarding issues that can put children at risk of harm. Behaviours linked to issues such as drug taking and/or alcohol misuse, unexplainable and/or persistent absences from education, serious violence (including that linked to county lines), radicalisation and consensual and non-consensual sharing of nude and semi-nude images and/or videos can be signs that children are at risk.

Further information on these and other issues can be found in Section 6 of this Policy and also in the School's Mental Health Policy found on the Extranet (Foundation Policies).

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

(i) Child on Child Abuse

All staff should be aware that children can abuse other children (often referred to as child on child abuse). And that it can happen both inside and outside of school and online. At Pocklington School, we adopt a 'zero tolerance' approach to abuse and, even when it is not reported, we understand that it can and does happen in our community. Child on child abuse is most likely to include, but may not be limited to:

- bullying (including cyberbullying, prejudice-based and discriminatory bullying);
- abuse in intimate personal relationships between peers;
- physical abuse such as hitting, kicking, shaking, biting, hair pulling, or otherwise
- causing physical harm (this may include an online element which facilitates, threatens and/or encourages physical abuse); sexual violence, such as rape, assault by penetration and sexual assault; (this may include an online element which facilitates, threatens and/or encourages sexual violence); sexual harassment, such as sexual comments, remarks, jokes and online sexual harassment, which may be standalone or part of a broader pattern of abuse;
- causing someone to engage in sexual activity without consent, such as forcing someone to strip, touch themselves sexually, or to engage in sexual activity with a third party;
- consensual and non-consensual sharing of nudes and semi nudes images and or videos (also known as sexting or youth produced sexual imagery);
- upskirting, which typically involves taking a picture under a person's clothing without their permission, with the intention of viewing their genitals or buttocks to
- obtain sexual gratification, or cause the victim humiliation, distress or alarm; and initiation/hazing type violence and rituals (this could include activities involving harassment, abuse or humiliation used as a way of initiating a person into a group and may also include an online element).

Bullying: Bullying is behaviour by an individual or group, repeated over time, that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally. Bullying can take many forms (for instance, cyber-bullying via text messages, social media or gaming, which can include the use of images and video) and is often motivated by prejudice against particular groups, for example on grounds of race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, special educational needs or disabilities, or because a child is adopted, in care or has caring responsibilities. It might be motivated by actual differences between children, or perceived differences. (Preventing and tackling bullying, DfE 2017)

It must be noted that all forms of bullying may lead to child protection concerns and can constitute a criminal offence.

Members of staff will actively challenge any form of behaviour which victimises others.

All staff should be aware that technology is a significant component in many safeguarding and wellbeing issues. Children are at risk of abuse online as well as face to face. In many cases abuse will take place concurrently via online channels and in daily life. Children can also abuse their peers online, this can take the form of abusive, harassing, and misogynistic messages, the non-consensual sharing of indecent images, especially around chat groups, and the sharing of abusive images and pornography, to those who do not want to receive such content. (KCSIE 2024)

Any concerns relating to child on child abuse must be reported promptly to a relevant pastoral lead (for example, housemaster / housemistress; Head of Division) and to a DSL. Concerns will be acted upon in good time and details will be recorded on secure safeguarding software for tracking, monitoring and managing safeguarding and wellbeing related matters (CPOMS). The DSL will liaise with the Headmaster and external agencies as required.

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

(ii) Serious Violence

All staff should be aware of the indicators, which may signal that children are at risk from, or are involved with serious crime. These may include increased absence from school, a change in friendships or relationships with older individuals or groups, a significant decline in performance, signs of self-harm or a significant change in wellbeing, or signs of assault or unexplained injuries. Unexplained gifts or new possessions could also indicate that children have been approached by, or are involved with, individuals associated with criminal networks or gangs and may be at risk of criminal exploitation (refer to section 6.8 of this policy for further information).

(iii) Sexual Contact between Young People

The issues involved here are complex, and it may be difficult, for example, to differentiate between abusive behaviour and normal sexual behaviour between young people. However, school staff must be aware that sexual assault constitutes a criminal offence. In addition, research has demonstrated that many adult perpetrators of sexual abuse begin committing abusive acts during adolescence, and that significant numbers are themselves the victims of abuse. It is therefore important that abusive behaviour between young people is dealt with appropriately, not only in order to protect the victim/future victims, but also the perpetrators may themselves be in need of services.

Generally, in relation to sexual behaviour between young people, school staff should be concerned if:

- The relationships between young people demonstrate a power differential, so that one participant is unable to give consent to the sexual activity, or to understand the nature of the relationship.
- There is force involved in any sexual act.
- A young person engages in sadistic or ritualistic sexual behaviour.
- A young person does not seem to have any peer relationships and seeks out younger children for sexual relationship. It must be noted that in accordance with the Sexual Offences Act 2003 penetrative sexual acts with a child under the age of 13 constitutes a criminal offence of rape and must be referred to the Police and Social Services.
- A young person attempts to secure secrecy (as opposed to privacy) in inappropriate ways, e.g. through bribery or threat.
- A young person demonstrates compulsive sexual behaviour e.g. compulsive public masturbation, exposure, and chronic use of pornography.
- A young person appears to be/suggests they are uncomfortable with any aspect of a relationship.

(iv) Female Genital Mutilation

Whilst all staff should speak to the designated safeguarding lead (or deputy) with regard to any concerns about female genital mutilation (FGM), there is a specific legal duty on teachers. If a teacher, in the course of their work in the profession, discovers that an act of FGM appears to have been carried out on a girl under the age of 18, the teacher must report this to the police. (Annex B in KCSIE 2024 contains further detail on this). Speak to the DSL team if you have any concerns about a child in this regard. Further information can also be found in this policy (Section 6.3 & Flow Chart in Appendix 6).

The Safeguarding Children Policy

(v) Awareness of factors outside school ('Extra-familial Harms')

All staff should be aware that safeguarding incidents and/or behaviours can be associated with factors outside School and/or can occur between children outside of these environments. All staff, but especially the designated safeguarding lead (and deputies) should consider whether children are at risk of abuse or exploitation in situations outside their families. Extra-familial harms take a variety of different forms and children can be vulnerable to multiple harms including (but not limited to) sexual abuse (including harassment and exploitation), domestic abuse in their own intimate relationships (teenage relationship abuse), criminal exploitation, serious youth violence, county lines, and radicalisation.

5.3 Behaviour observed between an adult and a young person within the school that may be abusive.

This can include behaviour observed between:

- A member of staff and a young person or
- A visitor (professional or family member/ friend) and a young person.

The Sexual Offences Act 2003

All Staff are to be aware of the Sexual Offences Act 2003. Staff must pay particular attention to the sections 'What Are Positions of Trust?' and 'The Abuse of Trust offences'.

- The Sexual Offences Act 2003 provides a clear, modern framework to protect the public from sexual crimes.
- It provides a comprehensive legislative framework for sexual offences.
- It puts victims first.
- It sets clear parameters for people working with Children, and with people with mental health disorders.

Protecting 16 and 17 Year-Olds

The position of trust offences in the Act covers all children under 18. They are mainly designed to protect young people aged 16 and 17 who, even though they are over the age of consent, are potentially vulnerable to sexual abuse from people in positions of trust or authority.

Where young people are 12 or under, or between 13 and 15, offences against them are likely to be charged under the general laws in the Act for these age groups.

What Are Positions of Trust?

The Act sets down specific positions of trust to which offences relate. People who are in these positions of trust will normally have power and authority in a child's life, and may have a key influence on their future. They will have regular contact with the child, and may be acting in loco-parentis.

Staff Must Act Without Delay

- All staff must act in a timely fashion so that the right help is received at the right time.
- All staff and in particular Designated Safeguarding Leads should ensure all actions relating to Child Protection are fully recorded as soon as possible after the event.
- Refer also to the School's Whistleblowing policy for guidance and direction as to required action.

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

5.4 The Abuse of Trust Offences

The offences for those working in positions of trust cover the same kinds of behaviour as offences which apply to the general public – except that, where positions of trust are concerned, the offences apply where the young person is under 18, instead of under 16.

Sexual activity with a child: This law covers all intercourse, other penetration or sexual touching of a child or young person. It includes sexual touching of any part of their body, clothed or unclothed, either with your body or with an object.

Causing or inciting a child to engage in sexual activity: This covers causing or persuading a child or young person to engage in any sexual activity, including sexual acts with someone else, or making a child strip or masturbate. This offence applies where someone has incited a child to engage in sex, even if the intended sexual activity does not take place.

Engaging in sexual activity in the presence of a child: Under this law it is an offence to intentionally engage in sexual activity when you know you can be seen by a child, or you believe or intend that they can see you, and where you do this in order to get sexual gratification from the fact that they may be watching you.

Causing a child to watch a sexual act: This makes it an offence to intentionally cause a child to watch someone else taking part in sexual activity, including looking at images of videos, photos or web cams for the purpose of your own sexual gratification.

Positions of trust exceptions: There are certain situations in which the positions of trust offences do not apply. These are where a person is legally married to the young person, or where a lawful sexual relationship existed before the position of trust arose. This would apply, for instance, where a 17 year old girl goes to stay in hospital where her adult boyfriend works as a nurse.

The Private and Voluntary Sector

The Sexual Offences Act has implications for private and voluntary sector organisations working with children, and with people with mental health disorders. It is envisaged that organisations working with children and with people with mental disorders will:

- Update policies and guidelines on inappropriate sexual relationships between staff and children or vulnerable adults.
- Take account of the Act when delivering training.
- Disseminate information about the offences affecting care workers and people in a position of trust within their organisations.

In particular, it will be important to ensure that people working with children are aware that they can continue to provide sex education, advice and contraception to under 16s in confidence and without fear of prosecution.

To find out more about the implication for professionals – including teachers – of the Sexual Offences Act, the Children’s Bill, and the ‘Safeguarding Children’ guidance, you can visit the Sex Education Forum website at www.ncb.org.uk/sef (Extracts taken from the Home Office guidance – Working within the Sexual Offences Act 2003.)

5.5 Staff Behaviour: 'Do's and Don'ts'

DO

- Treat everyone with respect
- Provide an example you want others to follow
- Encourage children, young people and adults to feel comfortable and caring enough to point out attitudes or behaviour they don't like
- Remember that someone else might misinterpret your actions, no matter how well intentioned
- Avoid situations that compromise your relationship with children and young people and are unacceptable within a relationship of trust
- Respect a child or young person's right to personal privacy, protection and safe environment
- Provide access and space for children and young people to talk about concerns they may have
- Listen to children and young people

DON'T

- Permit abusive peer activities (for example, ridiculing, bullying, name calling)
- Have any inappropriate physical contact or verbal interaction with children or young people
- Show favouritism to any individual
- Rely on your good name to protect you
- Let suspicion, potential disclosure or allegations of abuse, go unrecorded or unreported
- Jump to conclusions without checking facts
- Believe 'it could never happen here'
- Believe 'it could never happen to me'
- Be alone with a child, out of sight, in private (eg one to one tuition or providing lifts in cars – outside the prescribed guidelines). See ahead "Guidance for Adults Working on the School Site".

6. Information on Child Sexual Exploitation, Honour Based Abuse, Female Genital Mutilation, Prevention of Radicalisation, Children Missing Education & Child Criminal exploitation of children (including 'County Lines' exploitation)

Keeping Children Safe in Education notes the following as specific safeguarding issues.

6.1 Child sexual exploitation

Child sexual exploitation is a form of child sexual abuse. It occurs where an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance of power to coerce, manipulate or deceive a child or young person under the age of 18 into sexual activity (a) in exchange for something the victim needs or wants, and/or (b) for the financial advantage or increased status of the perpetrator or facilitator. The victim may have been sexually exploited even if the sexual activity appears consensual. Child sexual exploitation does not always involve physical contact; it can also occur through the use of technology.

Indicators of child sexual exploitation may include:

- Acquisition of money, clothes, mobile phones, etc. without plausible explanation;
- Gang-association and/or isolation from peers/social networks;
- Exclusion or unexplained absences from school, college or work;
- Leaving home/care without explanation and persistently going missing or returning late;
- Excessive receipt of texts/phone calls;

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

- Returning home under the influence of drugs/alcohol;
- Inappropriate sexualised behaviour for age/sexually transmitted infections;
- Evidence of/suspicions of physical or sexual assault;
- Relationships with controlling or significantly older individuals or groups;
- Multiple callers (unknown adults or peers);
- Frequenting areas known for sex work;
- Concerning use of internet or other social media;
- Increasing secretiveness around behaviours; and
- Self-harm or significant changes in emotional well-being.

Potential vulnerabilities include:

Although the following vulnerabilities increase the risk of child sexual exploitation, it must be remembered that not all children with these indicators will be exploited. Child sexual exploitation can occur without any of these issues.

- Having a prior experience of neglect, physical and/or sexual abuse;
- Lack of a safe/stable home environment, now or in the past (domestic abuse or parental substance misuse, mental health issues or criminality, for example);
- Recent bereavement or loss;
- Social isolation or social difficulties;
- Absence of a safe environment to explore sexuality;
- Economic vulnerability;
- Homelessness or insecure accommodation status;
- Connections with other children and young people who are being sexually exploited;
- Family members or other connections involved in adult sex work;
- Having a physical or learning disability;
- Being in care (particularly those in residential care and those with interrupted care histories); and
- Sexual identity.

NB: Working Together 2023 states: Child sexual exploitation is a form of child sexual abuse. It occurs where an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance of power to coerce, manipulate or deceive a child or young person under the age of 18 into sexual activity (a) in exchange for something the victim needs or wants, and/or (b) for the financial advantage or increased status of the perpetrator or facilitator. The victim may have been sexually exploited even if the sexual activity appears consensual. Child sexual exploitation does not always involve physical contact; it can also occur through the use of technology.

6.2 Information on so-called 'honour based' abuse

So-called 'honour-based' abuse (HBA) encompasses incidents or crimes which have been committed to protect or defend the honour of the family and/or the community, including female genital mutilation (FGM), forced marriage, and practices such as breast ironing. Abuse committed in the context of preserving "honour" often involves a wider network of family or community pressure and can include multiple perpetrators. It is important to be aware of this dynamic and additional risk factors when deciding what form of safeguarding action to take. All forms of HBA are abuse (regardless of the motivation) and should be handled and escalated as such. If in any doubt, staff should speak to the designated safeguarding lead (or deputy). Professionals in all agencies, and individuals and groups in relevant communities, need to be alert to the possibility of a child being at risk of HBA, or already having suffered HBA.

The Safeguarding Children Policy

Indicators

There are a range of potential indicators that a child may be at risk of HBA. Guidance on the warning signs that FGM or forced marriage may be about to take place, or may have already taken place, can be found on pages 38-41 of the Multi agency statutory Guidance on FGM.

Actions

If staff have a concern regarding a child that might be at risk of HBA they should activate local safeguarding procedures, using existing national and local protocols for multiagency liaison with police and children's social care. Where FGM has taken place, since 31 October 2015 there has been a mandatory reporting duty placed on teachers (*note references from KCSIE 2024 below):

6.3 FGM & mandatory reporting duty

FGM comprises all procedures involving partial or total removal of the external female genitalia or other injury to the female genital organs. It is illegal in the UK and a form of child abuse with long-lasting harmful consequences.

Section 5B of the Female Genital Mutilation Act 2003 (as inserted by section 74 of the Serious Crime Act 2015) places a statutory duty upon teachers along with regulated health and social care professionals in England and Wales, to report to the police where they discover (either through disclosure by the victim or visual evidence) that FGM appears to have been carried out on a girl under 18. Those failing to report such cases may face disciplinary sanctions. It will be rare for teachers to see visual evidence, and they should not be examining pupils, but the same definition of what is meant by "to discover that an act of FGM appears to have been carried out" is used for all professionals to whom this mandatory reporting duty applies. Information on when and how to make a report can be found at Mandatory reporting of female genital mutilation procedural information.

Teachers must personally report to the police cases where they discover that an act of FGM appears to have been carried out (See Appendix 6). Unless the teacher has good reason not to, they should still consider and discuss any such case with the school or college's designated safeguarding lead (or deputy) and involve children's social care as appropriate. The duty does not apply in relation to at risk or suspected cases (i.e. where the teacher does not discover that an act of FGM appears to have been carried out, either through disclosure by the victim or visual evidence) or in cases where the woman is 18 or over. In these cases, teachers should follow local safeguarding procedures. The following is a useful summary of the FGM mandatory reporting duty: Home Office FGM Fact Sheet \(https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/fact-sheet-on-mandatory-reporting-of-female-genital-mutilation\)

6.4 Forced Marriage

Forcing a person into a marriage is a crime in England and Wales. A forced marriage is one entered into without the full and free consent of one or both parties and where violence, threats or any other form of coercion is used to cause a person to enter into a marriage. Threats can be physical or emotional and psychological. A lack of full and free consent can be where a person does not consent or where they cannot consent (if they have learning disabilities, for example). Nevertheless, some communities use religion and culture as a way to coerce a person into marriage. Schools and colleges can play an important role in safeguarding children from forced marriage.

The Forced Marriage Unit has published Multi-agency guidelines, with pages 32-36 focusing on the role of schools and colleges. School and college staff can contact the Forced Marriage Unit if they need advice or information: Contact: 020 7008 0151 or email fm@fco.gov.uk.

Please note that it is now an offence, under the Marriage and Civil Partnership (Minimum Age) Act to cause a child under the age of 18 to enter a marriage in any circumstances, without the need to prove that a form of coercion was used. This includes non-legally binding 'traditional' ceremonies which would still be viewed as marriages by the parties and their families.

The Marriage and Civil Partnership (Minimum Age) Act 2022 came into force in February 2023. This means that 16 and 17 year olds will no longer be allowed to marry or enter a civil partnership, even if they have parental consent. Any concerns relating to underage or forced married should be referred to the DSL.

6.5 Preventing Radicalisation

Children can be susceptible to extremist ideology and radicalisation. Similar to protecting children from other forms of harms and abuse, protecting children from this risk should be a part of a schools' or colleges' safeguarding approach.

'Extremism' is the vocal or active opposition to our fundamental values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and the mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs. This also includes calling for the death of members of the armed forces.

'Radicalisation' refers to the process by which a person comes to support terrorism and extremist ideologies associated with terrorist groups.

'Terrorism' is an action that endangers or causes serious violence to a person/people; causes serious damage to property; or seriously interferes or disrupts an electronic system. The use or threat must be designed to influence the government or to intimidate the public and is made for the purpose of advancing a political, religious or ideological cause.

The School takes the following steps in order to protect children from the dangers of extremist views and the risk of being drawn into terrorism

1. All staff and adults working on site will be briefed on the need to be sensitive to these issues and asked to be ready to identify any children who may be susceptible to radicalisation.
2. The Foundation will assess the risk to children in the two schools (Pocklington and Pocklington Prep) of being drawn into terrorism or to develop extremist views.
3. The Designated Safeguarding Leads will liaise closely with the ERSCP on Prevent matters and undertake relevant "Prevent Training".
4. The Pocklington School Foundation will ensure that suitable ICT filtering is in place to prevent access to terrorist and extremist material online.

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

5. A 'Visiting Speakers' policy exists for staff to monitor content of any external speakers to the student body.
6. PSHE and Citizenship Schemes of Work actively support the spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of pupils within the context of fundamental British values. From September 2020, in line with statutory requirements PSHE will incorporate Relationship and Sex Education following the relevant DFE guidance.
7. As with all the other safeguarding concerns that staff may have for any child in the School, if a member of staff has a particular concern over a child with respect to their vulnerability to radicalisation they should follow the normal safeguarding procedures in this policy and discuss the matter as soon as possible with the Designated Safeguarding Lead.

What to do if you have a concern about a child being susceptible to radicalisation

As explained above, if a member of staff in a school has a concern about a particular pupil they should follow the school's normal safeguarding procedures, including discussing with the school's DSL, and where deemed necessary, with children's social care. In Prevent priority areas, the local authority will have a Prevent lead who can also provide support.

Referrals are made to prevent@eastriding.gov.uk and prevent@humberside.pnn.police.uk

You can also contact your local police force or dial 101 (the non-emergency number). They can talk to you in confidence about your concerns and help you gain access to support and advice.

The Department for Education has dedicated a telephone helpline (020 7340 7264) to enable staff and governors to raise concerns relating to extremism directly. Concerns can also be raised by email to counter.extremism@education.gsi.gov.uk. Please note that the helpline is not intended for use in emergency situations, such as a child being at immediate risk of harm or a security incident, in which case the normal emergency procedures should be followed.

Channel

Channel is a programme which focuses on providing support at an early stage to people who are identified as being susceptible to being drawn into terrorism. It provides a mechanism for schools to make referrals if they are concerned that an individual might be vulnerable to radicalisation. An individual's engagement with the programme is entirely voluntary at all stages. The DSL will liaise with the ERSCP for advice in all such matters. Further information on Channel can be found through the following link: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/channel-guidance>

6.6 Further Information on Children who are Absent from Education

Knowing where children are during school hours is an extremely important aspect of Safeguarding. Missing school can be an indicator of abuse and neglect and may also raise concerns about other safeguarding issues, including the criminal exploitation of children.

We monitor attendance carefully and address poor or irregular attendance without delay. We will always follow up with parents/carers when pupils are not at school.

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

Pastoral leads meet regularly to review absence and liaise with pupils and families where absence from education is a matter of concern. In recent years, absence has often been linked with anxiety (school refusal) where timely, considered and compassionate plans can be required.

In response to the guidance in Keeping Children Safe in Education (2024) the school has:

1. Staff who understand what to do when children do not attend regularly.
2. Appropriate policies, procedures and responses for pupils who go missing from education (especially on repeat occasions).
3. Staff who know the signs and triggers for travelling to conflict zones, FGM and forced marriage.
4. Procedures to inform the local authority when we plan to take pupils off-roll when they:
 - a. leave school to be home educated
 - b. move away from the school's location
 - c. remain medically unfit beyond compulsory school age
 - d. are in custody for four months or more (and will not return to school afterwards); or
 - e. are permanently excluded

When a pupil leaves the school, we will record the name of the pupil's new school and their expected start date.

Further information about children at risk of missing education can be found in the Children Missing Education guidance \(DFE 2024\).

All staff are expected to follow the procedures for registration and to alert the school office in any situation where a child is unaccounted for. Office staff, in liaison with relevant pastoral staff, will follow procedures as set down in the Critical Incident Policy relating to when a child is missing.

Parents should ensure that the school has at least two emergency contacts for their child. The school will endeavour to follow up with parents and carers where this is not the case.

Staff must refer any concerns they may have over any pupil who is missing school to the Designated Safeguarding Lead.

6.7 Child on Child Abuse including sexual violence and sexual harassment between children

DEFINITION: Children can abuse other children. This is generally referred to as child on child abuse and can take many forms. This can include (but is not limited to): bullying (including cyberbullying, prejudice-based and discriminatory bullying); abuse within intimate partner relationships; physical abuse such as hitting, kicking, shaking, biting, hair pulling, or otherwise causing physical harm; sexual violence and sexual harassment; consensual and non-consensual sharing of nude and semi-nude images and/or videos; causing someone to engage in sexual activity without consent, such as forcing someone to strip, touch themselves sexually, or to engage in sexual activity with a third party; upskirting and initiation/hazing type violence and rituals. Addressing inappropriate behaviour (even if it appears to be relatively innocuous) can be an important intervention that helps prevent problematic, abusive and/or violent behaviour in the future.

It is important to recognise that even if there are no reported cases of child-on-child abuse, such abuse may still be taking place and simply not being reported. Steps are taken to remind pupils and staff to be vigilant and confident in reporting concerns relating to child on child abuse.

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

Pupils have many avenues through which to report child on child abuse, through their pastoral staff (day and /or boarding, direct to DSLs, through independent listeners including via the wellbeing service and through external agencies as advertised at key points in the school and in boarding houses. Prefects and mentors receive safeguarding briefings by the DSL and are made alert to these issues.

Procedures to Minimise Child on Child Abuse:

- Child on Child abuse, including sexual violence and sexual abuse can happen anywhere, and all staff working with children are advised to maintain an attitude of 'it could happen here'.
- Ensuring that all staff and students understand that 'abuse is abuse' and that it should never be passed off as "banter", "part of growing up", "just having a laugh" or "boys being boys".
- Staff training on child on child related issues including awareness of different types of child on child abuse, signs and what steps to take if concerned. An aide-memoire relating to how staff should approach this issue is included on the Safeguarding Card (a student version is also given to sixth formers).
- Pupil training through PSHE, visiting speakers, liaison with ERSCP and Humberside Police for off-timetable training days.
- Ensuring a culture where students and staff feel confident in raising concerns about child on child abuse.
- Staff have a responsibility to role-model good behaviour in their interaction with pupils and colleagues.
- The school site is supervised by staff throughout the day with designated duty staff who are responsible for ensuring a positive and safe environment, being vigilant and reporting any instances of concern, including child on child abuse.
- Where appropriate, staff must act promptly and appropriately to challenge or prevent instances of child on child abuse and ensure that matters are reported immediately or as soon as is possible to the relevant Pastoral Lead and the DSL. Procedures are outlined in Section 7 of this policy and in the school's Anti-Bullying Policy.

Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment:

There is a 'zero tolerance' approach to sexual violence and sexual harassment at Pocklington School. It is never acceptable and it will not be tolerated. As with other forms of child on child abuse, it is especially important not to pass off any sexual violence or sexual harassment as "banter", "just having a laugh", "part of growing up" or "boys being boys" as this can lead to a culture of unacceptable behaviours and an unsafe environment for children. As in all areas of safeguarding and child on child abuse, staff must adopt the mindset that sexual violence and sexual harassment, even if not reported, can and does happen in our community. Through education, as discussed above, and through consistent messaging, clearly asserting appropriate standards during school years may have an important role in preventing such behaviours becoming entrenched and perpetuating into pupils' adult lives.

Context

Sexual violence and sexual harassment can occur between two children of any age and sex, from primary through to secondary stage and into colleges. It can occur through a group of children sexually assaulting or sexually harassing a single child or group of children. Sexual violence and sexual harassment exist on a continuum and may overlap; they can occur online and face to face (both physically and verbally) and are never acceptable.

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

Children who are victims of sexual violence and sexual harassment will likely find the experience stressful and distressing. This will, in all likelihood, adversely affect their educational attainment. It is important that all victims are taken seriously and offered appropriate support. Staff should be aware that some groups are potentially more at risk. Evidence shows girls, children with SEND and LGBT children are at greater risk.

Staff should be aware of the importance of:

- making clear that sexual violence and sexual harassment is not acceptable, will never be tolerated and is not an inevitable part of growing up;
- not tolerating or dismissing sexual violence or sexual harassment as “banter”, “part of growing up”, “just having a laugh” or “boys being boys”; and
- challenging behaviours (potentially criminal in nature), such as grabbing bottoms, breasts and genitalia, flicking bras and lifting up skirts. Dismissing or tolerating such behaviours risks normalising them.

What is Sexual violence and sexual harassment?

Sexual violence

It is important that school and college staff are aware of sexual violence and the fact children can, and sometimes do, abuse their peers in this way and that it can happen both inside and outside of school. When referring to sexual violence we are referring to sexual violence offences under the Sexual Offences Act 2003 as described below:

Rape: A person (A) commits an offence of rape if: he intentionally penetrates the vagina, anus or mouth of another person (B) with his penis, B does not consent to the penetration and A does not reasonably believe that B consents.

Assault by Penetration: A person (A) commits an offence if: s/he intentionally penetrates the vagina or anus of another person (B) with a part of her/his body or anything else, the penetration is sexual, B does not consent to the penetration and A does not reasonably believe that B consents.

Sexual Assault: A person (A) commits an offence of sexual assault if: s/he intentionally touches another person (B), the touching is sexual, B does not consent to the touching and A does not reasonably believe that B consents. (Schools should be aware that sexual assault covers a very wide range of behaviour so a single act of kissing someone without consent, or touching someone’s bottom/breasts/genitalia without consent, can still constitute sexual assault.)

Causing someone to engage in sexual activity without consent: A person (A) commits an offence if: s/he intentionally causes another person (B) to engage in an activity, the activity is sexual, B does not consent to engaging in the activity, and A does not reasonably believe that B consents. (This could include forcing someone to strip, touch themselves sexually, or to engage in sexual activity with a third party.)

What is consent?

Consent is about having the freedom and capacity to choose. Consent to sexual activity may be given to one sort of sexual activity but not another, e.g. to vaginal but not anal sex or penetration with conditions, such as wearing a condom. Consent can be withdrawn at any time during sexual activity and each time activity occurs. Someone consents to vaginal, anal or oral penetration only if s/he agrees by choice to that penetration and has the freedom and capacity to make that choice.¹³⁷ Further information about consent can be found here: Rape Crisis England & Wales - Sexual consent

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

- a child under the age of 13 can never consent to any sexual activity;
- the age of consent is 16;
- sexual intercourse without consent is rape

Sexual harassment

When referring to sexual harassment we mean ‘unwanted conduct of a sexual nature’ that can occur online and offline. When we reference sexual harassment, we do so in the context of child on child sexual harassment. Sexual harassment is likely to: violate a child’s dignity, and/or make them feel intimidated, degraded or humiliated and/or create a hostile, offensive or sexualised environment. Whilst not intended to be an exhaustive list, sexual harassment can include:

- sexual comments, such as: telling sexual stories, making lewd comments, making sexual remarks about clothes and appearance and calling someone sexualised names;
- sexual “jokes” or taunting;
- physical behaviour, such as: deliberately brushing against someone, interfering with someone’s clothes (schools and colleges should be considering when any of this crosses a line into sexual violence - it is important to talk to and consider the experience of the victim) and displaying pictures, photos or drawings of a sexual nature; and
- online sexual harassment. This may be standalone, or part of a wider pattern of sexual harassment and/or sexual violence.

It may include:

- consensual and non-consensual sharing of nudes and semi-nudes images and/or videos. As set out in UKCIS Sharing nudes and semi-nudes: advice for education settings working with children and young people (which provides detailed advice for schools and colleges) taking and sharing nude photographs of U18s is a criminal offence;
 - sharing of unwanted explicit content;
 - ‘upskirting’ (a criminal offence)
 - sexualised online bullying;
 - unwanted sexual comments and messages, including, on social media; and
 - sexual exploitation; coercion and threats

The response to a report of sexual violence or sexual harassment

The initial response to a report from a child is important. It is essential that all victims are reassured that they are being taken seriously and that they will be supported and kept safe. A victim should never be given the impression that they are creating a problem by reporting sexual violence or sexual harassment. Nor should a victim ever be made to feel ashamed for making a report. If staff have a concern about a child or a child makes a report to them, they should follow the referral process as set out in Section 7 of this policy. As is always the case, if staff are in any doubt as to what to do they should speak to the designated safeguarding lead (or a deputy).

The Safeguarding Children Policy

Further information on responding to incidents of child on child abuse can be found in Section 7.6 of this policy.

6.8 Child Criminal Exploitation & County Lines

Child Criminal Exploitation (CCE): CCE is where an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance of power to coerce, control, manipulate or deceive a child into any criminal activity (a) in exchange for something the victim needs or wants, and/or (b) for the financial or other advantage of the perpetrator or facilitator and/or (c) through violence or the threat of violence.

Some of the following can be indicators of CCE:

- children who appear with unexplained gifts or new possessions;
- children who associate with other young people involved in exploitation;
- children who suffer from changes in emotional well-being;
- children who misuse drugs and alcohol;
- children who go missing for periods of time or regularly come home late; and
- children who regularly miss school or education or do not take part in education.

The victim may have been criminally exploited even if the activity appears consensual. CCE does not always involve physical contact; it can also occur through the use of technology.

County Lines: County lines is a term used to describe gangs and organised criminal networks involved in exporting illegal drugs (primarily crack cocaine and heroin) into one or more importing areas [within the UK], using dedicated mobile phone lines or other form of “deal line”.

Exploitation is an integral part of the county lines offending model with children and vulnerable adults exploited to move [and store] drugs and money. Offenders will often use coercion, intimidation, violence (including sexual violence) and weapons to ensure compliance of victims.

Children can easily become trapped by this type of exploitation as county lines gangs create drug debts and can threaten serious violence and kidnap towards victims (and their families) if they attempt to leave the county lines network.

If a member of staff suspects that a child is being criminally exploited, or vulnerable to criminal exploitation, they must report their concerns as soon as possible to the DSL.

6.9 Domestic Abuse

Definition:

The Domestic Abuse Act 2021 (Part 1) defines domestic abuse as any of the following behaviours, either as a pattern of behaviour, or as a single incident, between two people over the age of 16, who are 'personally connected' to each other:

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

- (a) physical or sexual abuse;
- (b) violent or threatening behaviour;
- (c) controlling or coercive behaviour;
- (d) economic abuse (adverse effect of the victim to acquire, use or maintain money or other property; or obtain goods or services); and
- (e) psychological, emotional or other abuse.

People are 'personally connected' when they are, or have been married to each other or civil partners; or have agreed to marry or become civil partners. If the two people have been in an intimate relationship with each other, have shared parental responsibility for the same child, or they are relatives.

The definition of Domestic Abuse applies to children if they see or hear, or experience the effects of, the abuse; and they are related to the abusive person.

Types of domestic abuse include intimate partner violence, abuse by family members, teenage relationship abuse and child/adolescent to parent violence and abuse. Anyone can be a victim of domestic abuse, regardless of sexual identity, age, ethnicity, socio-economic status, sexuality or background and domestic abuse can take place inside or outside of the home.

Advice on identifying children who are affected by domestic abuse and how they can be helped is available at: NSPCC- UK domestic-abuse signs symptoms effects

Operation Encompass: Operation Encompass operates in all police forces across England. It helps police and schools work together to provide emotional and practical help to children. The system ensures that when police are called to an incident of domestic abuse, where there are children in the household who have experienced the domestic incident, the police will inform the key adult (usually the designated safeguarding lead) in school before the child or children arrive at school the following day. This ensures that the school has up to date relevant information about the child's circumstances and can enable support to be given to the child according to their needs. At Pocklington School, DSLs and key pastoral leads have received training from Operation Encompass.

6.10 Private Fostering

A private fostering arrangement is one that is made privately (without the involvement of a local authority) for the care of a child under the age of 16 years (under 18, if disabled) by someone other than a parent or close relative, in their own home, with the intention that it should last for 28 days or more.

A close family relative is defined as a 'grandparent, brother, sister, uncle or aunt' and includes half-siblings and step-parents; it does not include great-aunts or uncles, great grandparents or cousins. Parents and private foster carers both have a legal duty to inform the relevant local authority at least six weeks before the arrangement is due to start; not to do so is a criminal offence.

The School recognises its duty to inform the Local Authority of any private fostering or planned/suspected private fostering arrangements affecting the pupils/students. Staff and volunteers must alert the DSL to any possibility that a child or young person is in a private fostering arrangement, or is likely to be placed in a private fostering arrangement. The DSL must inform the Local Authority.

6.11 Child Abduction and Community Safety Incidents

Child abduction is the unauthorised removal or retention of a minor from a parent or anyone with legal responsibility for the child. Child abduction can be committed by parents or other family members; by people known but not related to the victim (such as neighbours, friends and acquaintances); and by strangers. Other community safety incidents in the vicinity of a school can raise concerns amongst children and parents, for example, people loitering nearby or unknown adults engaging children in conversation.

Liaison with locals police contact when concerns arise and appropriate lessons and messaging through pastoral time supports education in this regard.

When necessary, appropriate communication will be made with the school community to inform of concerns and advise sensible response.

(Further information and resources available at www.actionagainstabduction.org and www.clevernevergoes.org

6.12 Children and the Court System

Children are sometimes required to give evidence in criminal courts, either for crimes committed against them or for crimes they have witnessed.

The HM Courts and Tribunals service have produced age- appropriate guides that can be helpful to children and their families.

Making child arrangements via the family courts following separation can also be stressful and entrench conflict in families. Government support in this area can be found here.

In both the above types of cases, the school is well-placed to support children through pastoral teams and also the Wellbeing Service where appropriate.

6.13 Children with Family Members in Prison

Children with family members in prison are at risk of poor outcomes including poverty, stigma, isolation and poor mental health.

In addition to understanding and support from school, The National Information Centre on Children of Offenders, NICCO provides information designed to support professionals working with offenders and their children, to help mitigate negative consequences for those children.

6.14 Modern Slavery and the National Referral Mechanism

Modern slavery encompasses human trafficking and slavery, servitude and forced or compulsory labour. Exploitation can take many forms, including: sexual exploitation, forced labour, slavery, servitude, forced criminality and the removal of organs. Further information on the signs that someone may be a victim of modern slavery, the support available to victims and how to refer them to the NRM is available

The Safeguarding Children Policy

in the Modern Slavery Statutory Guidance. Modern slavery: how to identify and support victims - GOV.UK

6.15 Cybercrime

Cybercrime is criminal activity committed using computers and/or the internet. It is broadly categorised as either 'cyber-enabled' (crimes that can happen off-line but are enabled at scale and at speed on-line) or 'cyber dependent' (crimes that can be committed only by using a computer). Cyber-dependent crimes include;

- unauthorised access to computers (illegal 'hacking'), for example accessing a school's computer network to look for test paper answers or change grades awarded;
- denial of Service (Dos or DDoS) attacks or 'booting'. These are attempts to make a computer, network or website unavailable by overwhelming it with internet traffic from multiple sources; and,
- making, supplying or obtaining malware (malicious software) such as viruses, spyware, ransomware, botnets and Remote Access Trojans with the intent to commit further offence, including those above.

In instances where the school is concerned that a pupil is or may be involved in Cybercrime, as a part of the School's response, the DSL can consider referral to the Police's Cyber Choice programme. Further information can be found through this link.

7. Pocklington School Foundation: Child Protection Procedures

The following is relevant to all persons engaged by the Foundation, including those under 18 years of age (for example Lifeguards, Gap Students, Apprentices, assistants and volunteers, support staff).

7.1 Guidance for Adults Working on the School Site:

Also refer to the staff Code of Conduct.

- A member of staff is defined as any adult working on site with children (employed or volunteer in any capacity).
- All adults working on the school site should carefully ensure that their behaviour and actions do not place pupils or themselves at risk of harm or of allegations of harm to a pupil.
- Keep physical contact appropriate to the age and gender of the child and ensure it is for the child's benefit, security or safety. Refer to the Foundation Policies on Physical Contact and Restraint.
- In general, all adults should avoid 'non-public' one-to-one tuition, coaching or car transport. In situations where one to one tuition occurs, staff should make another colleague aware and a suitable venue should be chosen (e.g. a classroom with privacy panelled door, or with the door wedged open). Please discuss with the DSL for further advice / clarification on particular matters.
- Staff should only use their school email addresses when contacting pupils and they should avoid giving pupils their personal contact details (mobile numbers etc.). Care should be taken on personal social networking sites and staff should not use these for communicating with pupils. (Refer to Social Media Guidelines for staff). Please discuss with the DSL for further advice / clarification on particular matters.
- The Head of Drama/Theatre Studies, and the DSL will liaise to ensure that all public and examination based performances by the pupils will be appropriate to their ages, and involve no content or material or language that may cause offence or harm to the pupils. (ie Any elements of possible abuse themes are appropriate, and integral to the performance).
- If no specific advice, policies or guidelines exist for a situation, or if you are unsure, consult with the Headmaster or Designated Safeguarding Leads.
- If at any time you are concerned that an action or comment by yourself may be misinterpreted, or that a child behaves or makes a comment in a way that causes you concern in this respect, log your concerns immediately with the Headmaster or Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL) as appropriate.
- If at any time, a member of staff is concerned that a child's behaviour towards them is causing a feeling of being embarrassed or bullied (for example through the child's actions, repeated abusive or suggestive comments made by the child), either verbally or on Social Media, then the member of staff should discuss with the Designated Safeguarding Lead as soon as possible.

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

- All adults are encouraged to challenge appropriately persons who are unknown to them that they encounter on the school site.
- It is an offence for a person over the age of 18 and in a position of trust to have a sexual relationship with a child under 18, even if the relationship is consensual. (Section 16 2003 Sexual Offences Act).

7.2 What a Member of Staff should do if they have concerns about a child:

Please refer to the Action Flow Diagram that follows ('What to do when concerned about a child').*

See all relevant contact details in the Introduction to this Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy.*

- Any member of staff who has a concern over the welfare of a child should report this immediately to the Designated Safeguarding Leads. The child or family may need early help, additional support, and the DSL will be able to contact East Riding Safeguarding Children Partnership to discuss any Inter-Agency work which may be appropriate (see Appendix 2). The DSL will liaise with the ERSCP Early Help and Safeguarding Hub. Remember that anyone can make a referral to ERSCP if they are concerned about the safety of a child. Parental permission is not required to do this.

7.3 What a Member of Staff should do if they consider a child is in immediate danger or is at risk of harm.

See all relevant contact details in the Introduction to this Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy.*

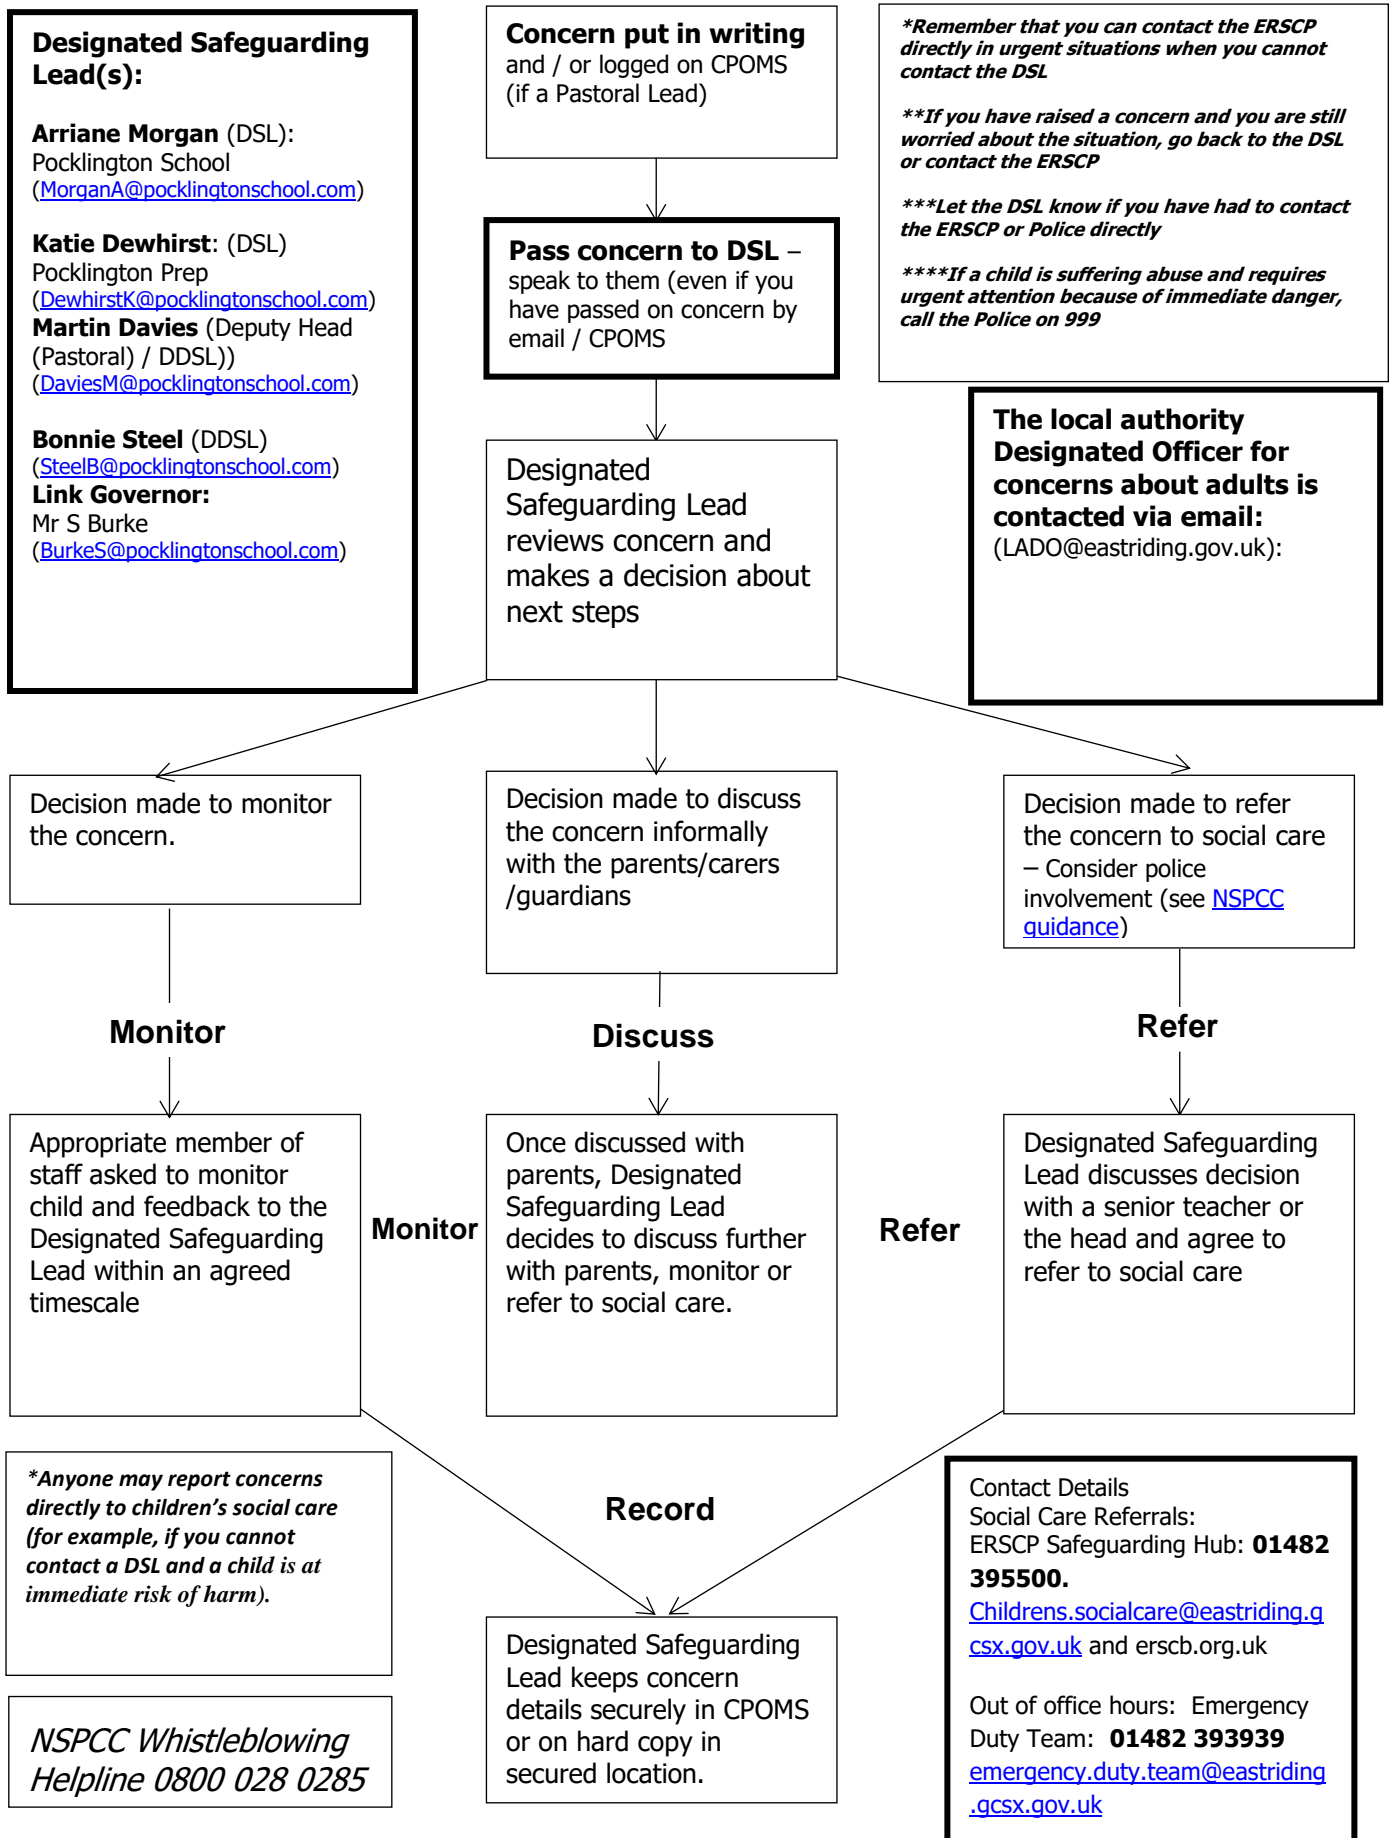

- If required, ensure the child receives any necessary medical treatment.
- Contact the DSL immediately. If unavailable, make a direct referral to ERSCP or contact the Police.
- Parental consent is not required for a referral to be made to statutory agencies.
- The DSL will usually decide to make a referral to ERSCP, but it is important to note that any member of staff can refer to East Riding Safeguarding Children Partnership directly. Following any direct referral to ERSCP, staff must report their actions immediately to the Headmaster and the DSL.
- In cases where there is a risk of immediate danger or a risk of harm to a child, a referral should be made to East Riding Safeguarding Children Partnership immediately ('immediately' means as soon as is possible and within 24 hours).
- If, following a situation where you have raised concerns or made a formal referral, you do not feel the situation is improving or being dealt with adequately, you must go back to the DSL (or Headmaster, or ERSCP) to make your concerns known. Concerns should always lead to help for the child at some point. (See Appendix 2)

Adults (staff, volunteers or persons under the age of 18 defined as above) in charge of children or young people should know what to do if they suspect that someone is being physically or sexually abused, or if someone tells them that this is happening.

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

7.5 What a Member of Staff should do if they receive an allegation against another adult working in the school (including governors, volunteers, supply teachers and agency staff)

If you receive an allegation of abuse about another adult working in the school (including governors, volunteers, supply teachers and agency staff), or you have concerns about the behaviour of another adult working at the school that relates to safeguarding children, then you must, without discussion with others, report the matter immediately. Normally, you should report this directly to the Headmaster who will then contact the Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO), as appropriate. Where an allegation involves supply staff, the relevant agency should be informed and involved. Please note that the school will not carry out an investigation prior to consultation with the LADO. The headmaster will decide whether the concern is an allegation or a low-level concern. The term 'low-level' concern does not mean that it is insignificant, it means that the behaviour towards a child does not meet the threshold for referral to the Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO) (see below for further information on 'Low Level' concerns).

- In the absence of the Headmaster, inform the Chair of Governors immediately (Mr Jonathan Tilsed – tilsedj@pocklingtonschool.com).
- Where there is a conflict of interest in reporting the matter to the Headmaster, the matter can be reported directly to the Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO – see contact details in this policy)
- In a case where the Headmaster is the subject of the allegation or the concern, the matter should be reported immediately to the Chair of Governors who will liaise with the local authority Designated Officer (LADO) – see contact details in this policy. The Headmaster will not be informed.
- Staff may consider discussing any concerns with the DSL and make any referral via them.
- Employees are referred to the school policy “Guidance Policy on Procedures when a Member of Staff, Volunteer, Governor, Designated Safeguarding Lead or Headmaster faces Allegations of Abuse”, which is available on the Extranet.
- “Whistleblowing”. Adult employees are referred to the Foundation’s “Whistleblowing Policy” - this is found on the Extranet and is part of the induction process.
The NSPCC Whistleblowing Policy is available for staff who do not feel able to raise concerns regarding Child Protection failures internally. Tel: 0800 0280285 (8am-8pm) help@nspcc.org.uk

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION The Safeguarding Children Policy

Where a staff member feels unable to raise an issue with their employer or feels that their genuine concerns are not being addressed, other whistleblowing channels may be open to them:

- General guidance can be found at <https://www.gov.uk/whistleblowing>
- The NSPCC whistleblowing helpline is available for staff who do not feel able to raise concerns regarding child protection failures internally. Staff can call: 0800 028 0285 – line is available from 8.00 am to 8.00 pm Monday to Friday and email: help@nspcc.org.uk
- Alternatively, staff can write to National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NSPCC), Weston House, 42 Curtain Road London EC2A 3NH
- There is a legal requirement for the School to make a referral to the DBS where they think that an individual has engaged in conduct that harmed (or is likely to harm) a child; or if a person otherwise poses a risk of harm to a child. (To be done as soon as possible and within 24 hours)
- Independent schools are also under a duty to consider making a referral to the Teaching Regulation Agency (TRA) where a teacher has been dismissed (or would have been dismissed had he/she not resigned) and a prohibition order may be appropriate, and should make reference to this in their policies. The reasons such an order would be considered are: 'unacceptable professional conduct', 'conduct that may bring the profession into disrepute' or a 'conviction, at any time, for a relevant offence'.

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

'Low-level' Concerns

Concerns may be graded 'Low-level' if the concern does not meet the criteria for an allegation; and the person has acted in a way that is inconsistent with the staff code of conduct, including inappropriate conduct outside of work.

Example behaviours include, but are not limited to:

- being over friendly with children;
- having favourites;
- taking photographs of children on their mobile phone;
- engaging with a child on a one-to-one basis in a secluded area or behind a closed door; or,
- using inappropriate sexualised, intimidating or offensive language.

If the concern has been raised via a third party, the headteacher should collect as much evidence as possible by speaking:

- directly to the person who raised the concern, unless it has been raised anonymously;
- to the individual involved and any witnesses.

'Low- Level Concerns' will be addressed separately. Concerns will be recorded in writing, including details, context in which the incident took place and any action taken. Records will be reviewed by the Headmaster and should a pattern of concern arise internal disciplinary procedures can be considered and / or a referral to the LADO made.

Reports about supply staff and contractors should be notified to their employers, so any potential patterns of inappropriate behaviour can be identified.

Staff should be encouraged and feel confident to self-refer, where, for example, they have found themselves in a situation which could be misinterpreted, might appear compromising to others, and/or on reflection they believe they have behaved in such a way that they consider falls below the expected professional standards.

7.6 What a Member of Staff should do if they receive an allegation of child on child abuse (including sexual harassment and violence')

For further information on child on child abuse (including sexual violence and sexual harassment) see sections 5.2 and 6.7 of this policy. Part 5 of KCSIE (September 2024) provides the full government guidance that the school follows in dealing with incidents (this incorporates previous guidance).

Pupils have many avenues through which to report child on child abuse, through their pastoral staff (day and /or boarding, direct to DSLs, through independent listeners including via the wellbeing service and through external agencies as advertised at key points in the school and in boarding houses. Prefects and mentors receive safeguarding briefings by the DSL and are made alert to these issues.

Staff must respond appropriately to all reports and concerns about child on child abuse, including sexual violence and/or sexual harassment both online and offline, including those that have happened outside of the school. If staff have a concern about a child or a child makes a report to them, they should follow the referral process as set out in section 7 of this policy. If you are ever in any doubt about how you should respond, do not hesitate to speak to the DSL.

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

(i) Initial response

The initial response to a report from a child is very important. How we respond to a report can encourage or undermine the confidence of future victims of child on child abuse (including sexual violence and sexual harassment) to report or come forward.

- A child is likely to report an incident to someone they trust – it could be anyone
- Victims mustn't feel that they are being a nuisance for reporting their concerns
- The child must feel listened to, reassured and taken seriously.
- Do not promise confidentiality – it is most likely support and guidance will need to be taken to help
- Do not be judgemental
- Do not ask leading questions
- Only prompt the child where necessary using open questions ('TED' – 'Tell, Explain, Describe')
- Explain to the child how their report will be progressed
- A written report of the conversation will be important to pass on to the DSL. It is best to take this at the end of the conversation and the report must only contain the facts of what is being reported, using the child's own words, as far as is possible.

(ii) Report to the Designated Safeguarding Lead as soon as possible.

Following government guidance (Part 5 of KCSIE 2024 for cases of Sexual Violence/ Harassment) and liaising with external agencies where necessary, the DSL will consider the following when deciding on next steps:

- Wishes of the victim (Note guidance given in KCSIE Part 5 where a child requests confidentiality or where the school may need to make referrals against the wishes of the child)
- Nature of the alleged incident
- Ages of children involved
- Developmental stages of children involved
- Any power imbalance between the children
- Whether this is a one off incident or a sustained pattern of behaviour
- Any on-going risk to others
- Any potential links to sexual abuse or exploitation
- Important to consider support for perpetrator(s) and any other children affected.
- In cases of sexual violence or harassment in particular, consideration must be given to impact on any siblings. Careful consideration of intra-familial harms will be given and necessary support identified
- Risk Assessments must take into account the time and location of incidents and steps, where possible, will be taken to make locations safer

Where there is a Child Protection incident, the School will ensure that the child's wishes are taken into account when determining what action to take and what service to provide. The child will be able to express their wishes and give feedback via the DSL, Well-being Service or Social Workers. The School will always operate with the child's best interests at heart whilst taking the necessary Multi-agency advice.

It would be an expectation that in the event of a potential disclosure about pupil on pupil abuse, that all children involved, whether perpetrator or victim, are treated as being at risk.

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

If the alleged victim is a child of concern or in immediate danger refer to guidance given in the relevant section of this policy (7.2;7.3;7.4). Refer also to the Anti-Bullying and Procedures to Counteract Cyber-bullying for actions concerning the investigation of instances of bullying, cyber-bullying or the sharing of nudes / semi-nudes. Liaison with local agencies (ERSCP and the Police) will occur as necessary (see flow diagram in section 7.4 of this document). Support for victims will occur via liaison and support from the ERSCP Prevent and Education team and the School's Well-Being Service).

- Sharing Nudes and Semi Nudes (Previously referred to as 'Sexting') – In cases where nudes or semi-nudes have been shared, we follow guidance given to schools and colleges by the UK Council for Internet Safety (UKCIS): Sharing nudes and semi-nudes \(March 2024\). Incidents may occur in the contexts of abuse such as bullying/cyber-bullying. Incidents will be discussed with ERSCP Children's Social Care and the Police, with parents involved as the circumstances dictate, following guidance from ERSCP/Police. School sanctions following those in the Rewards and Sanctions Policy will be considered as appropriate.

Initial response: When an incident involving nudes and semi-nudes comes to the attention of any member of staff in an education setting the incident should be referred to the DSL (or equivalent) as soon as possible.

(For further information, refer to the School's document, 'Sharing Nudes and Semi-Nudes: Guidance for dealing with incidents')

7.7 Children with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (or Certain Health Conditions):

Children with special educational needs (SEN) and disabilities (or certain health conditions) can face additional safeguarding challenges. Additional barriers can exist when recognising abuse and neglect in this group of children. These can include:

- assumptions that indicators of possible abuse such as behaviour, mood and injury relate to the child's condition without further exploration;
- these children being more prone to peer group isolation or bullying (including prejudice-based bullying) than other children;
- the potential for children with SEND or certain medical conditions being disproportionately impacted by behaviours such as bullying, without outwardly showing any signs; and
- communication barriers and difficulties in managing or reporting these challenges

In liaison with all relevant parties including external agencies, the School considers extra pastoral support for children with SEN and disabilities (or other certain health conditions).

When applying disciplinary measures such as restraint or isolation in response to incidents involving children with SEN and disabilities (or other certain health conditions), we must consider the risks carefully, given the additional vulnerability of children within this group. To safeguard a pupil from others, it may be necessary to use restraint and yet restraint is likely to impact on the well-being of the child. By planning positive and proactive behaviour support, schools and colleges can reduce the occurrence of risky behaviour and the need to use restraint. Guidance is available from DFE in 'use-of-reasonable-force-in-schools' document. (further information is available in KCSIE 2024).

As appropriate and in the best interests of the child, information and advice relating to SEN and disabilities (and other certain health conditions) are passed on to relevant staff.

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

Concerns about children in relation to SEN or disability (or certain health conditions) should be raised with relevant pastoral staff, the Head of Learning Support and the DSL (whomever is most appropriate given the seriousness / urgency of the concern).

7.8 Guidelines Relating to Looking After Pupils with Mental Health Issues

“All staff should also be aware that mental health problems can, in some cases, be an indicator that a child has suffered or is at risk of suffering abuse, neglect or exploitation. Only appropriately trained professionals should attempt to make a diagnosis of a mental health problem. Staff however, are well placed to observe children day-to-day and identify those whose behaviour suggests that they may be experiencing a mental health problem or be at risk of developing one.” (KCSIE 2024)

If staff have a mental health concern about a child that is also a safeguarding concern, immediate action should be taken by speaking to the relevant pastoral lead and / or the Designated Safeguarding Lead or a deputy.

Guidance and support relating to mental health issues can be found in the School’s Mental Health Policy and also in the Medical Centre Protocols. Both these documents are available on the Extranet in ‘Foundation Policies’.

Issues referred to in these documents include:

- Anxiety and Depression
- Eating Disorders
- Self Harm
- Bereavement

7.9 Domestic Abuse

Should a staff member have concerns that a young person may be living in a home where one or more parents may be perpetrators of domestic abuse, the school should contact the Children’s Social Care to make a Child Protection Referral (ERSCP); see ‘Key Contacts’ in this policy. Discuss any concerns you may have with the DSL. Further information on Domestic Abuse is found in Section 6 of this policy and independent advice can be sought through:

- The National Domestic Abuse helpline can be called free of charge and in confidence, 24 hours a day on 0808 2000 247.
- NSPCC- UK domestic-abuse signs symptoms effects

7.10 The School Wellbeing Service & Independent Listeners

(All boarding schools are required by the National Minimum Boarding Standards to provide an independent listener for the benefits of the boarding pupils. At Pocklington there is a designated Independent Listener and also the school’s Wellbeing Service for this purpose).

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

The Wellbeing Service at Pocklington provides a confidential service to pupils who have emotional or social concerns. The service is overseen by the Head of Pupil Welfare and is regularly evaluated and reviewed.

The Wellbeing Service provides access to two independent clinical psychologists and also to trained counsellors for all boarding and day pupils and complement the care provided by the school staff. The Wellbeing team have rooms within the school's Health and Wellbeing Centre. Pupils who wish to use the Wellbeing service can do so by making a confidential appointment by direct contact, through their Housemaster/mistress or a member of staff with whom they are happy to confide.

7.11 Private Fostering Arrangements

If staff become aware that a child under the age of 16 is being provided with care and accommodation by someone to whom they are not related, in that person's home, they should raise the matter in the first instance with the Designated Safeguarding Lead. The DSL may notify ERSCP to ensure that the arrangement is suitable and safe for the child.

7.12 Online Safety Including Filtering and Monitoring

All staff are referred to the suite of Foundation Policies including Pocklington and Prep School Anti-Bullying policies, ICT Policies, Mobile Phone Policy, Remote Learning Policies and the Addendum to this Child Protection Policy.

Any concerns should be reported to relevant pastoral leads and the Designated Safeguarding Lead who has overall responsibility for online safety.

The breadth of issues classified within online safety is considerable, but can be categorised into four areas of risk:

content: being exposed to illegal, inappropriate or harmful content, for example: pornography, fake news, racism, misogyny, self-harm, suicide, anti-Semitism, radicalisation and extremism (or any content which is inappropriately hostile to any individual or group on grounds of religion, sex, gender, sexuality, or other protected characteristics).

contact: being subjected to harmful online interaction with other users; for example: peer to peer pressure, commercial advertising and adults posing as children or young adults with the intention to groom or exploit them for sexual, criminal, financial or other purposes'.

conduct: personal online behaviour that increases the likelihood of, or causes, harm; for example, making, sending and receiving explicit images (e.g consensual and non-consensual sharing of nudes and semi-nudes and/or pornography, sharing other explicit images and online bullying);

commerce: risks such as online gambling, inappropriate advertising, phishing and or financial scams. If you feel pupils are at risk, please report it to the Anti-Phishing Working Group (APWG | Unifying The Global Response To Cybercrime)

- Internet access via the school network is filtered and monitored using Smoothwall technology. The DSL is alerted to any concerns. The DSL liaises with relevant pastoral leads and pupils / parents are contacted as required.
- Devices used away from the school site are also subject to filtering and monitoring procedures.
- The school is alert to the reality that Internet access via 3G, 4G and 5G means some children, whilst at school can sexually harass, bully, and control others via their mobile and smart technology, share indecent images consensually and non-consensually (often via large chat groups) and view and share pornography and other harmful content. In addition to online safeguarding education, the school has introduced more restrictive rules on mobile phone use by students during the school day. As well as improving the school environment and the learning experience of children, this measure is also designed to help reduce risks posed to children through uncontrolled access via 3G, 4G and 5G technology.

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

- There is an Online Safety Group meeting held annually (or more frequently as required) where the effectiveness of measures relating to online safeguarding (including filtering and monitoring) are reviewed. This meeting includes DSL, Senior Management, IT Leads, and the Safeguarding Governor.
- The School follows the DFE's guidance for meeting digital and technological standards (March 2022).
- All staff undertake training (e.g. through Foundation Inset) to understand the risks of poor filtering and monitoring, knowing what to look out for and how and with whom to share any concerns.
- In keeping with DFE guidance on Filtering and Monitoring, staff also undertake cyber-security training at least annually.

For further information on keeping children safe when they are learning at home see Pocklington School Remote Learning Policy and the Addendum to the Child Protection Policy.*

7.13 Looked After Children and Previously Looked After Children

This refers to any child who is subject to a care order (interim or final care) or who is voluntarily accommodated by a local authority (eg. East Riding). If a looked-after child (or previously looked after child) is present on the School roll, the relevant DSL will liaise with ERSCP social care to secure the following:

1. Knowledge of all necessary details and legal status of the child.
2. Contact details of those adults with Parental Responsibility.
3. The care arrangements and levels of authority of the carer as delegated by the authority.
4. Details of the child's Social Worker and the name of the 'virtual School Head' in the local authority that looks after the child.
5. The DSL will oversee and direct the pastoral care required in cases where a child is, or has previously been, looked after.
6. Arriane Morgan (DSL) is the Designated Teacher (DT) and the main point of contact for external agencies and for Looked After Children in school.

7.14 Use of School Premises by Out-of-School Providers

In both term time and during the school holidays, there are a number external organisations that hire Pocklington School facilities for the purpose of providing activities for children.

When the School hosts out-of-school providers for this reason, steps will be taken to ensure that the provider meets the guidance in 'Keeping Children Safe during community activities, after-school clubs and tuition' \(DfE, 2020\). This will be the case whether or not Pocklington pupils are involved in such activities.

The Safeguarding Children Policy

External organisations are responsible for their own safeguarding and child protection policies and procedures. Nevertheless, should Pocklington School have concerns about the provider or about a child in their care, the school may refer the matter to the Local Authority Designated Officer, following our own procedures and contacts.

8. Guidance on Listening to and Dealing with a Potential Disclosure

Remember that children may not be ready to talk about issues or experiences. They may not feel ready or know how to tell someone that they are being abused, exploited or neglected. They may also not recognise their experience as harmful. As staff, we must share concerns that we may have about a child with the DSL even if a disclosure is not forthcoming. Building good relationships with children and having a 'professional curiosity' is a key part of the safeguarding role of members of staff.

If a child wishes to share or make any allegation of abuse or concern over their, or another's, welfare then staff should:

- Listen to the child carefully and sensitively.
- Do not ask leading questions (see below).
- Follow the protocols and guidance in Section 5 above and the flow diagram in order to inform the DSL/Headmaster.

- Acting upon receipt of any safeguarding concerns, the school will then take advice from Social Care (ERSCP) or the Protecting Vulnerable People Unit. Any referral must be made within 24 hours of allegations or suspicions of abuse. The school will then follow the protocol of Appendix 1 (Procedures for Headmaster and Designated Safeguarding Lead in regard to instances of harm to pupils).

- If the child needs urgent medical attention contact the Health Centre. Keep the child informed of the steps that are being taken.

- Record all information available as soon as possible. This should include:
 - the date and time of events
 - the nature of the allegation
 - the reason for suspicion
 - details of any injury
 - action taken

- It is important that staff should not investigate reports of physical or sexual abuse, or ask any leading questions, beyond the point of establishing that there is an allegation of abuse. This is to prevent unnecessary or repeated interviewing.

- It is important that staff should not give any inappropriate or absolute guarantees of confidentiality to pupils or adults.

- Information should only be disclosed to the minimum number of people who need to know. Staff should not contact parents. This will be undertaken by the Headmaster or Designated Safeguarding Lead.

The pupils concerned will be given access to a telephone which they can use in privacy if they wish to seek help or advice from a source outside the School.

9. Safer Recruitment Procedures

These are outlined in the 'Pocklington School Foundation - Safer Recruitment Policy' (extranet Foundation Policies). Assurance is obtained that Child Protection checks and procedures apply to any staff employed by another organisation and working with the school's pupils on another site. A summary of this policy is also available in the Safeguarding Suite.

10. Children Absent from Education

The school will inform ERYC Education Welfare Service, as appropriate, whenever children of compulsory school age are missing education upon leaving the school, and further inform them of the child's destination if known. (See also section 6.6 of this policy for further information)

11. Use of computers, mobile phones and cameras (including in the EYFS setting)

It is important for young people to have access to computers and Internet facilities for promotion of their education and personal development. The school has suitable protection in place to ensure only safe sites can be accessed. Cyber bullying comes in two types, direct attacks and by proxy and we have a duty to prevent cyber bullying.

The school has introduced more restrictive rules on mobile phone use by students during the school day. As well as improving the school environment and the learning experience of children, this measure is also designed to help reduce risks posed to children through uncontrolled access via 3G, 4G and 5G technology.

Please refer to the Pocklington School Policies for the Use of Information and Communication Technologies, the Anti-Bullying and Procedures to Counteract Cyberbullying Policy. We also refer to the East Riding Safeguarding Children Partnership's E-safety guidance (<http://www.erscb.org.uk/professionals-and-volunteers/e-safety/>).

The School's policy on the taking, storage and use of sensitive and appropriate photographic images forms part of our Data Protection Policy (Please refer to the Foundation Policy on Taking, Storing and Using Images Appendix 4 to the Data protection Policy) and is summarised in the Data Protection Notice issued to all parents. Staff are aware that no photographs or videos are to be stored on personal mobiles or cameras and must be downloaded to a secure location on the school's network. Photographs of every child are taken every year and a copy of this image is held with the child's secure electronic record and used for identification purposes.

11.1 Use of mobile phones and cameras in Prep and the EYFS setting

*Please also refer to the EYFS Policy.

For those children in the EYFS tracked using Tapestry software, images are stored electronically using access to a secure web-based facility which is username/password protected; this is accessible for parents to view their child's record of development and to communicate with the class teacher using the same software.

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

Mobile phones

The Children Act 2004 obligates Pocklington Prep to ensure that the children in our care are safeguarded and their welfare is promoted. Camera phones in particular are seen as a potential risk as their use is difficult to detect and there is the potential to take inappropriate photographs or images.

- The use of mobile phones can be intrusive and impact adversely on the Pocklington Prep environment.
- Users bringing personal devices into Pocklington Prep must ensure there are no inappropriate images or illegal content on the device.
- Mobile phone calls should normally only be taken at staff breaks or in staff members own time.
- All students/parent helpers/temporary staff will be requested to place their bag in the staff room in a locker or lockable cupboard or in the office.
- During group outings, staff should ensure they have a mobile phone on their person and they may request the use of a school mobile phone (see Educational Visits Policy).
- In recognition of the need to protect the privacy of the children, parents and visitors are requested not to use their mobile phone cameras around the school. Exceptions do exist for school events such as Sports Day and plays; we do however remind parents/carers that any images taken at such events should not be posted on social media.
- It is the responsibility of all members of staff to be vigilant and report any concerns to the Head of Prep School or Head of Pre-Prep.

Cameras

- Photographs taken for the purposes of recording a child or group of children participating in activities or celebrating their achievements is an effective form of recording their progression throughout Pocklington Prep. However, it is essential that photographs are taken and stored appropriately to safeguard the children in our care.
- Only designated Pocklington Prep cameras or mobile devices are to be used to take any image within the EYFS setting.
- Images taken must not put the child/ren in any compromising positions that could cause embarrassment or distress.
- All staff are responsible for the safe keeping of the cameras and returning them to the school office.
- Images must be downloaded as soon as possible, ideally at least once a week and stored on the school storage system. Staff must not store images of school pupils on their personal devices on personal 'cloud-based' storage.
- Under no circumstances must cameras of any kind be taken into bathrooms without prior consultation with the Head of Prep School or Head of Pre-Prep. Where photographs need to be taken in a bathroom i.e. photographs of children washing their hands, the Head of Prep or Head of Pre-Prep must be asked first and staff must be supervised. At all times, the door must be kept open and the camera used in a prominent place where it can be seen.
- Specific guidance for parents and staff on the use of cameras and mobile phones when on school trips is in the Educational Visits Policy.

Appendix 1: Procedures for Headmaster and Designated Safeguarding Lead in regard to allegations of harm caused to pupils by a member of staff / volunteer

1. Allocate a suitable member of staff to stay with the child.
In the event of injury, this may be the School Nurse.
2. Do not interview or examine the child – contact Social Care (ERSCP/LADO) and/or Protecting Vulnerable People Unit (PVPU) immediately. Refer to the Pocklington School Foundation Policy “Guidance Policy on Procedures when a Member of Staff, Volunteer, Governor, Designated Safeguarding Lead or Headmaster faces Allegations of Abuse”.
3. Await advice from Social Care and PVPU about the following:
 - a. informing the pupil’s parents
 - b. medical examination
 - c. immediate protection for the child
 - d. informing other people at the School

N.B. The Headmaster should not inform parents against the wishes of the investigating agencies but may wish to record dissent if agreement cannot be reached.

4. Keep the child informed of the steps that are being taken, as appropriate to their age and understanding.
5. Make a decision about the longer term protection of the child, which may include:
 - o returning the child home
 - o changing the child’s school accommodation
 - o counselling

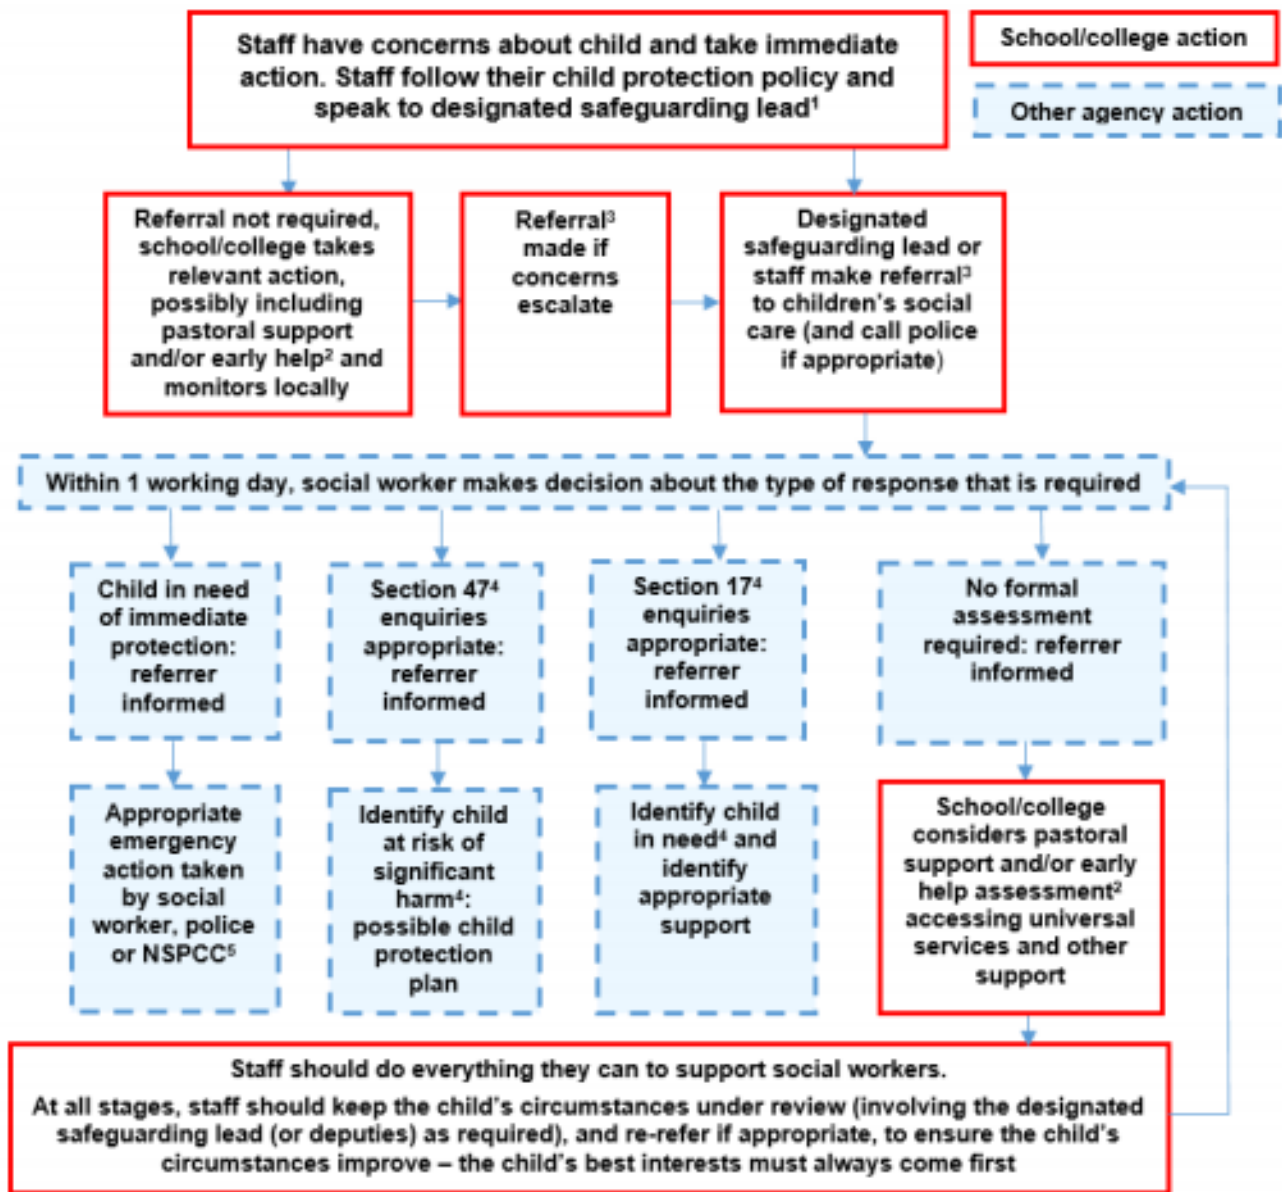

N.B. A day pupil should not normally be detained in school beyond the end of the school day. There may, however, be exceptional circumstances where the child is very distressed or in immediate danger. In such cases a decision should be taken at the discretion of the Headmaster and in liaison with Social Care.

6. Record the time of referral. Log all suspicions and record all action taken.
7. If a residential member of staff is suspended pending investigation, they must be placed off-site away from children.
8. The school must report to the Disclosure and Barring Service, within one month of leaving the school, any person (whether employed, contracted, a volunteer or student) whose services are no longer used because he or she is considered unsuitable to work with children. DBS Customer Services Tel: 087090 90811. Address: PO Box 181, Darlington, DL1 9FA, Tel: 01325 953795. The school will also consider making a referral to the Teacher Regulation Agency (TRA) where a teacher has been dismissed (or would have been dismissed if had not resigned) and a prohibition order may be appropriate.
9. Notify the Chair of Governors that a referral has been made. Do not disclose names or personal details.
10. While the School is still in loco parentis, the child should be accompanied by a member of staff at all times while being questioned by any of the investigating agencies

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION
The Safeguarding Children Policy

Appendix 2 (a): Flow Diagram of referral actions when concerned about a child

¹ In cases which also involve a concern or an allegation of abuse against a staff member, see Part Four of this guidance.

² Early help means providing support as soon as a problem emerges at any point in a child's life. Where a child would benefit from co-ordinated early help, an early help inter-agency assessment should be arranged. Chapter one of Working Together to Safeguard Children provides detailed guidance on the early help process.

³ Referrals should follow the process set out in the local threshold document and local protocol for assessment. Chapter one of Working Together to Safeguard Children.

⁴ Under the Children Act 1989, local authorities are required to provide services for children in need for the purposes of safeguarding and promoting their welfare. Children in need may be assessed under section 17 of the Children Act 1989. Under section 47 of the Children Act 1989, where a local authority has reasonable cause to suspect that a child is suffering or likely to suffer significant harm, it has a duty to make enquiries to decide whether to take action to safeguard or promote the child's welfare. Full details are in Chapter one of Working Together to Safeguard Children.

⁵ This could include applying for an Emergency Protection Order (EPO).

Appendix 2 (c): Overview of ERSCP Threshold Assessment Framework Indicators

Pocklington School's working relationship with East Riding Safeguarding Children Partnership (ERSCP) is a close and valued one. Where there are concerns regarding the safety of our pupils, we will take advice, support and work alongside the local authority. ERSCP provides excellent support for families and in supporting the broader education of our pupils. The extract below is taken from ERSCP's 'Guidance for all practitioners in working together to support families and safeguard children' and sets out their approach:

The Effective Support Windscreen demonstrates the East Riding approach to working with children in need of support, and their families. It is underpinned by the following good practice principles:

- Child centred
- The right support at the right level
- Focused on outcomes
- Working respectfully
- Listening to family members and giving importance to what they say
- Building on strengths
- Hearing the voices of children and young people
- Communicating concerns, and what needs to happen to reduce concerns, clearly
- Working systemically with the child's family and community
- Understanding individuality, beliefs, culture and spirituality
- Honesty and transparency.

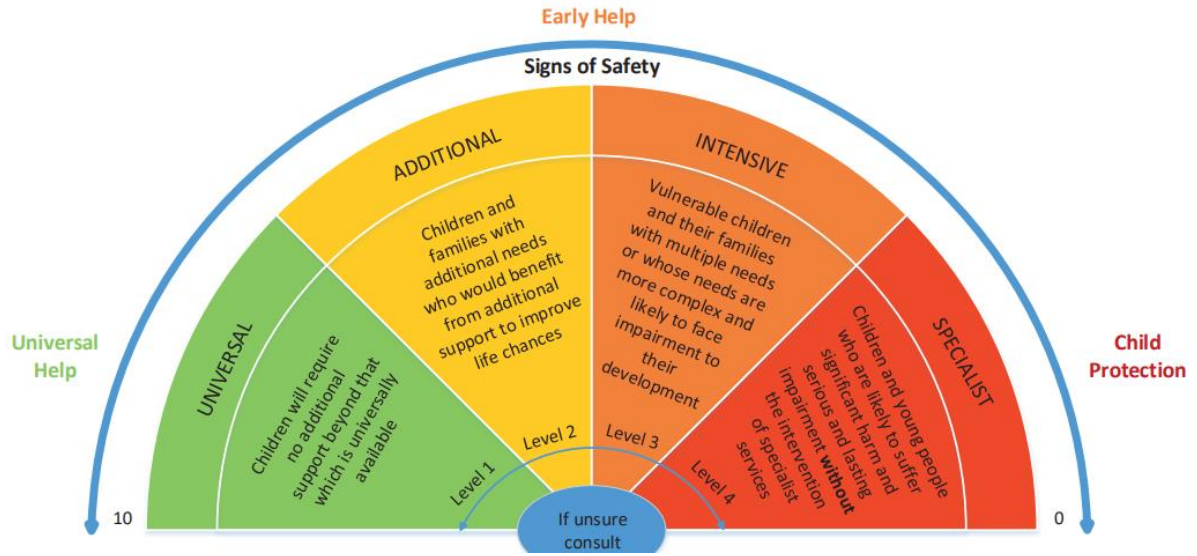

The Effective Support Windscreen identifies four levels of need:

- Universal
- Additional
- Intensive
- Specialist

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

Appendix 4: The Role of the Designated Safeguarding Lead

Governing bodies, proprietors and management committees should ensure an appropriate senior member of staff, from the school or college leadership team, is appointed to the role of designated safeguarding lead. The designated safeguarding lead should take lead responsibility for safeguarding and child protection (including online safety, with understanding and oversight of filtering and monitoring). This should be explicit in the role holder's job description. This person should have the appropriate status and authority within the school to carry out the duties of the post. They should be given the time, funding, training, resources and support to provide advice and support to other staff on child welfare and child protection matters, to take part in strategy discussions and inter-agency meetings, and/or to support other staff to do so, and to contribute to the assessment of children.

Deputy designated safeguarding leads

It is a matter for individual schools and colleges as to whether they choose to have one or more deputy designated safeguarding leads. Any deputies should be trained to the same standard as the designated safeguarding lead and the role should be explicit in their job description.

Whilst the activities of the designated safeguarding lead can be delegated to appropriately trained deputies, the ultimate lead responsibility for child protection, as set out above, remains with the designated safeguarding lead, this lead responsibility should not be delegated.

Availability

During term time the designated safeguarding lead (or a deputy) should always be available (during school or college hours) for staff in the school or college to discuss any safeguarding concerns. Whilst generally speaking the designated safeguarding lead (or Deputy) would be expected to be available in person, it is a matter for individual schools and colleges, working with the designated safeguarding lead, to define what "available" means and whether in exceptional circumstances availability via phone and or Skype or other such media is acceptable. It is a matter for individual schools and colleges and the designated safeguarding lead to arrange adequate and appropriate cover arrangements for any out of hours/out of term activities.

Manage referrals

The designated safeguarding lead is expected to refer cases:

- of suspected abuse and neglect to the local authority children's social care as required and support staff who make referrals to local authority children's social care;
- to the Channel programme where there is a radicalisation concern as required and support staff who make referrals to the Channel programme;
- where a person is dismissed or left due to risk/harm to a child to the Disclosure and Barring Service as required; and
- where a crime may have been committed to the Police as required. NPCC - When to call the police should help understand when to consider calling the police and what to expect when working with the police.

Working with others

The designated safeguarding lead is expected to:

- act as a source of support, advice and expertise for all staff;
- act as a point of contact with the safeguarding partners;

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

- liaise with the headteacher or principal to inform him or her of issues, especially ongoing enquiries under section 47 of the Children Act 1989 and police investigations. *This should include being aware of the requirement for children to have an Appropriate Adult (for example, in police investigation or in searches). Further information can be found in the Statutory guidance - PACE Code C 2019.
- as required, liaise with the “case manager” (as per Part four) and the local authority designated officer(s) (LADO) for child protection concerns in cases which concern a staff member;
- liaise with staff (especially teachers, pastoral support staff, school nurses, IT Technicians, senior mental health leads and special educational needs coordinators (SENCOs), or the named person with oversight for SEN in a college and Senior Mental Health Leads) on matters of safety and safeguarding and welfare (including online and digital safety) and when deciding whether to make a referral by liaising with relevant agencies so that children’s needs are considered holistically;
- liaise with the senior mental health lead and, where available, the Mental Health Support Team, where safeguarding concerns are linked to mental health;
- promote supportive engagement with parents and/or carers in safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, including where families may be facing challenging circumstances;
- work with the headteacher and relevant strategic leads, taking lead responsibility for promoting educational outcomes by knowing the welfare, safeguarding and child protection issues that children in need are experiencing, or have experienced, and identifying the impact that these issues might be having on children’s attendance, engagement and achievement at school or college. This includes:
 - ensure that the school or college knows who its cohort of children who have or have had a social worker are, understanding their academic progress and attainment, and maintaining a culture of high aspirations for this cohort; and,
 - support teaching staff to provide additional academic support or reasonable adjustments to help children who have or have had a social worker reach their potential, recognising that even when statutory social care intervention has ended, there is still a lasting impact on children’s educational outcomes

Information sharing and managing the child protection file

The designated safeguarding lead is responsible for ensuring that child protection files are kept up to date. Information should be kept confidential and stored securely. It is good practice to keep concerns and referrals in a separate child protection file for each child. Records should include:

- a clear and comprehensive summary of the concern
- details of how the concern was followed up and resolved;
- a note of any action taken, decisions reached and the outcome.

They should ensure the file is only accessed by those who need to see it and where the file or content within it is shared, this happens in line with information sharing advice as set out in Part one and Part two of this guidance.

Where children leave the school or college (including in year transfers) the designated safeguarding lead should ensure their child protection file is transferred to the new school or college as soon as possible, and within 5 days for an in-year transfer or within the first 5 days of the start of a new term. This should be transferred separately from the main pupil file, ensuring secure transit, and confirmation of receipt should be obtained. Receiving schools and colleges should ensure key staff such as designated safeguarding leads and SENCOs or the named person with oversight for SEN in colleges, are aware as required.

The Safeguarding Children Policy

Lack of information about their circumstances can impact on the child's safety, welfare and educational outcomes. In addition to the child protection file, the designated safeguarding lead should also consider if it would be appropriate to share any additional information with the new school or college in advance of a child leaving to help them put in place the right support to safeguard this child and to help the child thrive in the school or college. For example, information that would allow the new school or college to continue supporting children who have had a social worker and been victims of abuse and have that support in place for when the child arrives.

Raising Awareness

The designated safeguarding lead should:

- ensure each member of staff has access to, and understands, the school's or college's child protection policy and procedures, especially new and part-time staff;
- ensure the school's or college's child protection policy is reviewed annually (as a minimum) and the procedures and implementation are updated and reviewed regularly, and work with governing bodies or proprietors regarding this;
- ensure the child protection policy is available publicly and parents are aware of the fact that referrals about suspected abuse or neglect may be made and the role of the school or college in this;
- link with the safeguarding partner arrangements to make sure staff are aware of any training opportunities and the latest local policies on local safeguarding arrangements; and,
- help promote educational outcomes by sharing the information about the welfare, safeguarding and child protection issues that children who have or have had a social worker are experiencing with teachers and school and college leadership staff

Training, knowledge and skills

The designated safeguarding lead (and any deputies) should undergo training to provide them with the knowledge and skills required to carry out the role. This training should be updated at least every two years. The designated safeguarding lead should undertake Prevent awareness training. Training should provide designated safeguarding leads with a good understanding of their own role, how to identify, understand and respond to specific needs that can increase the vulnerability of children, as well as specific harms that can put children at risk, and the processes, procedures and responsibilities of other agencies, particularly children's social care, so they:

- understand the assessment process for providing early help and statutory intervention, including local criteria for action and local authority children's social care referral arrangements;
- have a working knowledge of how local authorities conduct a child protection case conference and a child protection review conference and be able to attend and contribute to these effectively when required to do so;
- understand the importance of the role the designated safeguarding lead has in providing information and support to children social care in order to safeguard and promote the welfare of children;
- understand the lasting impact that adversity and trauma can have, including on children's behaviour, mental health and wellbeing, and what is needed in responding to this in promoting educational outcomes;
- are alert to the specific needs of children in need, those with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND), those with relevant health conditions and young carers;

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

- understand the importance of information sharing, both within the school and college, and with the safeguarding partners, other agencies, organisations and practitioners;
- understand and support the school or college with regards to the requirements of the Prevent duty and are able to provide advice and support to staff on protecting children from the risk of radicalisation;
- are able to understand the unique risks associated with online safety and be confident that they have the relevant knowledge and up to date capability required to keep children safe whilst they are online at school or college;
- can recognise the additional risks that children with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) face online, for example, from online bullying, grooming and radicalisation and are confident they have the capability to support children with SEND to stay safe online;
- obtain access to resources and attend any relevant or refresher training courses; and,
- encourage a culture of listening to children and taking account of their wishes and feelings, among all staff, in any measures the school or college may put in place to protect them. In addition to the formal training set out above, their knowledge and skills should be refreshed (this might be via e-bulletins, meeting other designated safeguarding leads, or simply taking time to read and digest safeguarding developments) at regular intervals, as required, and at least annually, to allow them to understand and keep up with any developments relevant to their role

In addition to the formal training set out above, their knowledge and skills should be refreshed (this might be via e-bulletins, meeting other designated safeguarding leads, or simply taking time to read and digest safeguarding developments) at regular intervals, as required, and at least annually, to allow them to understand and keep up with any developments relevant to their role.

Providing support to staff

Training should support the designated safeguarding lead in developing expertise, so they can support and advise staff and help them feel confident on welfare, safeguarding and child protection matters. This includes specifically to:

- ensure that staff are supported during the referrals processes; and
- support staff to consider how safeguarding, welfare and educational outcomes are linked, including to inform the provision of academic and pastoral support.

Understanding the views of children

It is important that children feel heard and understood. Therefore, designated safeguarding leads should be supported in developing knowledge and skills to:

- encourage a culture of listening to children and taking account of their wishes and feelings, among all staff, and in any measures the school or college may put in place to protect them; and,
- understand the difficulties that children may have in approaching staff about their circumstances and consider how to build trusted relationships which facilitate communication.

Holding and sharing information

The critical importance of recording, holding, using and sharing information effectively is set out in Parts one, two and five of KCSIE, and therefore the designated safeguarding lead should be equipped to:

- understand the importance of information sharing, both within the school and college, and with other schools and colleges on transfer including in-year and between primary and secondary education, and with the safeguarding partners, other agencies, organisations and practitioners;

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

The Safeguarding Children Policy

- understand relevant data protection legislation and regulations, especially the Data Protection Act 2018 and the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR); and, be able to keep detailed, accurate, secure written records of all concerns, discussions and decisions made including the rationale for those decisions. This should include instances where referrals were or were not made to another agency such as LA children's social care or the Prevent program etc.

Appendix 8: Guidance on Dealing with an Allegation or a Potential Disclosure

Please be familiar with the guidance in KCSIE 2024 Part 1, and the flow diagram in the Pocklington School Child Protection Policy, found in Section 7.

Remember that children may not be ready to talk about issues or experiences. They may not feel ready or know how to tell someone that they are being abused, exploited or neglected. They may also not recognise their experience as harmful. As staff, we must share concerns that we may have about a child with the DSL even if a disclosure is not forthcoming. Building good relationships with children and having a 'professional curiosity' is a key part of the safeguarding role of members of staff.

If a child is ready and has the courage to talk to an adult, they may have to betray someone they are close to, and someone they may love, they will be hoping that telling you will make a difference.

Some helpful responses:-

"What is the matter" rather than "are you ok?"

Find somewhere quiet for the young person to be able to speak to you privately. (Try to safeguard yourself by letting another adult know that this is about to happen.

- Remain calm, accessible and receptive.
- Listen carefully without interrupting.
- Communicate with the child in a way that is appropriate to their age.
- Be aware of the non – verbal message you are giving by your demeanour.
- Acknowledge their courage and reassure them that they are right to tell.
- Reassure them that they should not feel guilty. Tell them that you are sorry that this has happened to them.
- Let them know that you are going to do everything you can to help them, and explain what is going to happen next.

You can't promise to tell no-one, but you can promise only to tell those that can help.

- Make a note of what you have been told with the child present and using their actual words where possible.

You need to record what happened, when it happened, who was present, what time of day it was and if it was an isolated or repeated act. Rather than taking notes while the child is talking, it can be better to wait until you have listened to the account and then to go over the key details, noting them with the child to ensure all is correct. This is also a good opportunity to confirm with them next steps, including who you will and won't be passing the information to.

What to avoid.

- Try not to let your shock or distaste show.
- Do not probe for more information.
- Do not speculate or make assumptions.
- Do not agree to keep it a secret or promise that "everything will be alright".
- Do not tell their parents, rather, share what has been said with the DSL for decisions about what should happen next.
- Do not share the details of what has been said with anyone other than those you are reporting it to for help, i.e. The DSL.

Do not delay in getting emergency help if needed. (e.g. in obtaining medical support or reporting your concerns directly to ERSCP)

- confidentiality not promised
- listen to victim, non-judgementally
- record the disclosure (facts as reported)
- two staff present (one being the DSL, or reported to DSL as soon as possible)

- any ongoing risks to victim or others
- other related issues and wider context (eg. CSE)

Appendix 10: Procedures for Theatre Dressing of Pupils (and uniform fitting)

POCKLINGTON SCHOOL FOUNDATION

Child Protection Procedures for the Theatre Dressing of Pupils
(and Uniform Fitting in the School Shop)

AIM

To allow all concerned (School Wardrobe and School Shop staff, teaching staff, volunteer adults and pupils), to feel prepared and informed as pupils are fitted for drama production costumes. No adult must feel to be in a compromised situation, or a child made to feel uncomfortable.

Procedures to Follow

- No fitting of costumes to be conducted behind locked doors.
- Whenever possible, two adults (teaching or support staff or volunteers) should be present as pupils are fitted for costumes if this occurs behind a closed door. Due regard must be taken of the pupils' age and gender as to the nature of the adults present.
- Whenever possible, costume fitting may occur in a room with an open door. If the adult assisting is working alone, they should inform a nearby adult that they are fitting pupils in the room with the door open.
- Adults should remain at all times sensitive as to the age and requirements of the pupils they are fitting. Older pupils for example, should only be assisted when fully dressed in their costume, changing having occurred behind a closed door.
- All persons should knock on a door and ask permission to enter a room if pupils are known to be undressing inside.
- Adults should remain aware as to the level of contact made with the pupil. Adults may also refer to the 'Physical Contact' School Policy.
- If adults are unsure over any matter concerning the privacy or welfare of a particular pupil, then they should contact, in the first instance, the pupil's Housemaster/mistress for advice.
- It may be necessary for example, to discuss the fitting of pupils' costumes beforehand with parents, or to even invite parents into school to attend fitting sessions.
- If in doubt, the Foundation's Child Protection Officers, Mrs Katie Dewhirst (Pock Prep) and Mrs Arriane Morgan (Pocklington School) should be consulted.
- Similar considerations to above can be applied whilst helping pupil's fit items of school uniform in the shop.
